Celebrate 76th Year In Business In Antioch

Everything's new at Cap's Barber Shop on Main St. in Antioch except the faces.

The shop has been completely remodeled—new paneled walls, new tile floors, the latest thing in chairs, sink and fixtures of all kinds.

With the interior completed, the Radkes are starting to install a rear entrance to the shop. It will open on to the black-topped parking lot behind the shop for the convenience of customers.

But the father-son tradition that has persisted through 76 years is still in evidence in the shop.

"Cap"—Maurice H. Radke—and his son Dick work together in the shop now—have for about 15 years. Before that, Cap worked with his father, Herman, founder of the shop and pioneer Antioch resident. And for a few years grandfather Herman, Cap, and Dick were all manning chairs in the barber shop.

Herman Radke started the shop in 1890. He came from Germany, and lived first at Lake Geneva, where he learned the barbering trade as an apprentice.

Herman Radke bought the shop in Antioch about eight years later, and taught the trade to his son Maurice. For a few years, the elder Radke was out of the shop and engaged in the real estate business. Cap kept the business going, and his father finally returned to work with him until his death in 1951.

Dick Radke was already in the shop at the time of his grandfather's death. He had attended Weeden Barber College in Chicago after graduating from Antioch High School. The apprentice system of learning the barber trade was no longer allowed.

Ray Eddy, who worked for Cap's father back about 1925, is back in the shop now, manning one of the chairs. He remembers the day of the 40c haircut and the 20c shave and the days when Antioch had wooden sidewalks.

The Radkes have been prominent in civic life in Antioch for many years — Dick is a member of the Lions Club and bowls on the team he sponsors. His mother, Edna, Mrs. Maurice Radke, is employed at Antioch High School.

Antioch's Main St., and Cap's Barber Shop, have changed a great deal in the 76 years that the Radkes have had the Barber Shop. A bit of the past will be preserved in the decorations in the newly-remodeled shop—a painting of the original building, done by Jackie Horton from an old photo Cap has, will hang on the wall, a reminder of bygone days.

Picture will be found on page 9 of this issue.

Parents Day Sat.

Saturday is Parents' Day at the Antioch High School football field.

The annual observance of recognition of parents of football players on Antioch High's team will include corsages for the Moms, special seats in the grandstand and introduction of the parents.

With only two games to go in a tight conference race, there's sure to be a big crowd on hand to cheer the Sequoits on Saturday. A loss by Lake Forest, with Antioch winning, could put the Sequoits in first place in the Northwest Suburban Conference.

Win or lose, the Antioch gridders have been worth watching this year, and proud parents will have a chance to share in their sons' glory Saturday.

Six Win Cash In Halloween Poster Contest

Winniers of the Halloween Poster Contest sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce have been announced by the committee in charge of the contest.

Children from the 7th and 8th grades of Antioch schools competed in the contest. Eighty posters were turned in by pupils of St. Peter's School, Antioch Grade School and Oakland School. St. Petter's students turned in the greatest number of posters.

Candy Nelson, 7th grade, took first prize, a $25 savings bond; 2nd Rick Nauseda, 8th grade, $15 cash; 3rd Joellyn Zannini, $10; 4th, Mary Haley, $8; 5th, Robert Gross, $5, and 6th, Bud Newton, $2.

Honorable Mention was given to posters submitted by Debbie Hession, Len Meara, Keith Pribble, Diana Farber and Don Koch.

The posters were judged by the Chamber Directors and a local artist. The eighty posters will be distributed Thursday to local stores and the three financial institutions for display. Prize winners will be identified by ribbons.

The poster contest is an annual Halloween event sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

A.G.S. Purchases New School Bus

The Antioch Grade School Board of Education awarded bids for a new 72-passenger bus at last Tuesday's meeting of the board.

The bid of Carpenter Body Co. was accepted for the body of the bus. Base price was $3,775, less an $1,100 trade-in for a 1959 bus; net price was $2,675.

The bid on the chassis was awarded to Pedersen Implements. The price of $3,517 included freight charges, a five-speed transmission and a heavy duty battery.

Architect Curtis Johnson was instructed to draw up specifications and supervise the work on renovating the Channel Lake School, at a fee of 6% of the total contract. The board instructed him to move at once to draw up specifications for bids on the drilling of a new well, to include a submersible pump, at least 4 inch casing and the new well to be connected to the present system.

The board employed William F. Meyer as a new custodian and bus driver. He will be employed on the night shift and drive a morning bus route.

Three teachers were given permission to attend the Illinois Association of Health and Physical Education conference at Peoria November 10, 11 and 12. Harlan Ware, Virginia Barlow and Mary Bruski will attend the conference.

Superintendent Richard Whitacre, accompanied by two teachers from the lower grades and two from the higher grades, will attend a Reading Conference at the Elmhurst Country Club Nov. 2. Mrs. Wanda Barthel, Belinda Dittman, Lucile Whitacre and Joanne Paddock will attend the conference.

Mrs. Roberta Thompson will attend a seminar on The Gifted Child next week.

The board approved the purchase of new steel baskets and 144 lockers for the locker room at Oakland School. Combination locks on the lockers will protect the children's clothing.

The board approved the consolidation of all surety bonds of school personnel under one bond.

TURN BACK THE CLOCK

It's that time of year again. The end of daylight saving time.

Daylight Saving Time ends for this year at 2 a.m. Sunday, October 30. Set your clock, or clocks, back one hour. Have an extra hour's sleep—that hour you lost last Spring is now restored to you.

Trick Or Treat To Help Needy

Have a few coins on hand Sunday for the small witches, goblins and ghosts who come "trick or treating" to buy goodies for needy children in other countries.

Children from the Sunday School of the Antioch Methodist Church will be out in costume that day with their UNICEF containers. The money they collect will buy such "goodies" as milk and penicillin.

Food and antibiotics are distributed to starving, diseased children throughout the world by UNICEF. Last year, Trick or Treat for Unicef resulted in a gift of $2.5 million to the world's needy children.

The children will carry the official Unicef container, an orange half-pint milk container. The children won't be able to cover the whole area, so containers will be placed in business places in Antioch for those who wish to contribute.

The children will be escorted by adults on their trick or treat rounds, and will have a penny-counting party at Wesley Hall of the Methodist Church after completing their rounds.

Miss Nancy Irish and Mrs. John R. Laude are co-chairmen of the UNICEF program in Antioch.

Eighty children will be taking part in the Antioch Unicef drive this year. They'll be from grades 1 through 6 at the Methodist Church Sunday School.

The children collected $176 for Unicef in last year's drive, a record for Antioch. The chairmen hope to top last year's figure this year.

Bristol Farmers Band Needs More Members

Celia Hojem, Rt. 3, Antioch, who recently joined the Bristol Farmers Band, relays the information that the band is looking for members.

The popular Bristol Band plays for many affairs and marches in many parades. Members may be high school age or older.

Practice is held every Monday night through the winter months in preparation for the summer marching and playing season. The practice sessions are from 8 to 9:30 p.m. at Salem Central high school. Members are not required to attend every practice session.

Anyone interested in joining the band can get more information by calling Miss Hojem at 395-3391.

Clavey Chairman Of "Toys For Tots"

Coroner Pat Clavey will be chairman of this year's "Toys for Tots" campaign in Lake County.

This is the thirteenth year the Marine Corps Reservists have conducted their campaign to gather Christmas toys for needy children. The original Toys for Tots campaign began in Los Angeles in 1947. Since that time, the various campaigns of the Marine Reserves have collected over five million toys annually for needy children. Wherever possible existing welfare and charitable organizations participate in the distribution of the toys collected.

Honorary Chairman of Lake County's campaign will be Dr. Willard I. Morrey of North Chicago.

Attend Funeral Of Grandmother

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Oftedahl, Antioch, and Mr. Oftedahl's mother, Mrs. Wanda Skurdanis of Antioch, recently returned from Hanley Falls, Minnesota, where they attended the funeral of Mr. Oftedahl's grandmother, Mrs. Einar (Ellen) Oftedahl.

Mrs. Oftedahl died October 18, at the age of 96. She was the oldest living resident of Yellow Medicine County. She had come from Norway at the age of 16 to marry Einar, who had emigrated earlier.

The Oftedahls farmed all their lives. Mrs. Oftedahl was preceded in death by her husband and two sons. Survivors included a son, Edwin, who lived on the home farm, and two daughters, Helma, of Hanley Falls, and Sue of LaGrange Park; seven grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mrs. Oftedahl were held Thursday, Oct. 20, from the Yellow Medicine Lutheran Church in Hanley Falls.

Former A.C.H.S. Student Works With Mich. Senate

"See if you can locate in the Public Acts how we stand on the highway right-of-way statutes . . .". This language is now part of the everyday life of Robert William White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald White of Antioch, Legislative Intern assigned to the Michigan State Senate.

White, a Cornell College, Mt. Vernon, Iowa history and political science major and winner of one of eight 1966-1967 Michigan State Legislative fellowships, pursues the elusive fragments of many Michigan legislative actions.

Senators work in close cooperation with White in providing access to the inner workings of the Michigan government.

In the course of his research and writings, White, married to the former Carol Tonne of Mt. Vernon, has established a working relationship with Governor Romney's staff, the Attorney General, Secretary of State, the Treasurer's office, and department heads of state government.

The role of the Legislative Intern covers the vast area of state laws and their interworkings for the general welfare of Michigan citizens.

White, a graduate of Antioch Community High School, is pointing towards his Masters in Political Science from the University of Michigan and a Doctoral degree to follow.

Grass Fires Increasing In Antioch Area

Grass fires are springing up again throughout the area as dampening effects of the recent rain wear off. The Antioch Fire Department has put out several of the fires in the last week.

Four fires were extinguished by the fire department Friday, Oct. 21. Three grass fires, one behind Lorenz's Restaurant on Route 173 at 12:15 p.m.; one on Grass Lake Road at 12:50 p.m. and one on Route 83 at 1:50 p.m., plus a tree on fire at Shady Nook subdivision at 7:05 p.m. were Friday's calls.

Saturday, Oct. 22, a car was on fire in Rosing's subdivision at 7:15 p.m. Monday, October 24, a grass fire in Bleich subdivision on Beach Grove Road at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 25, a brush fire on North Ave. at 11:40 a.m. and a grass fire on Hillside Ave. at 3:40 p.m. were the reasons for the siren's sounding.

Tuesday night, 55 firemen and their wives were shown how to use mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, using the new Resusci-Annie. Four Rescue Squad members were present to help in the demonstration. Resusci-Annie was purchased jointly by the Fire Dept. and the Rescue Squad for community use. The mannequin is a great help in teaching First Aid.

Mental Health Topic At P.T.A. Meeting

Dr. John P. Risley, Director of the Lake County Mental Health Clinic, will be the main speaker at the November meeting of the Antioch High School P.T.A.

The meeting will start at 8 p.m. November 2 in the high school cafeteria. Dr. Risley will discuss mental health. There will be a question and answer period after the main talk.

Dr. Risley joined the Lake County Mental Health Clinic as Medical Director in May, 1957. He has engaged in private psychiatric practice since 1954, and has a part time private psychiatric practice in Waukegan.

Positions Dr. Risley has held in the past include service in the U. S. Veterans Administration out-patient clinic in Baltimore; Senior Psychiatrist and Chief of Convalescent Service at Spring Grove State Hospital in Cantonsville, Md.; Director of Spring Grove State Hospital Out-Patient clinic in Baltimore; Medical Director of Washington County Mental Health Clinic at Hagerstown, Md., and two years of private practice.

He is a member of the American Medical Association, the Lake County Medical Society, the Illinois Psychiatric Society and a Fellow of the American Phychiatric Association.

PO Employee Gets Award

An employee of the Antioch Post Office received an award last week for a suggestion for improving working procedure at the post office.

Miss Celia Hojem, Rt. 3, Antioch, received a cash award and a Certificate of Award from Postmaster Joe Wolf for her suggestion for a different method of storing facing slips. The suggestion will save employees time in finding the correct slips.

The award is given under the Incentive Awards Program of the post office department.

A report of the suggestion is submitted by Postmaster Wolf to the Regional Director, who approves the award. The awards were given to Miss Hojem October 15.

Cash Taken In School Break-In

Grass Lake School near Antioch was broken into last Wednesday night and $250 in cash taken from a cash box in the school office.

Superintendent John Schockmel said the break-in was discovered about 6 a.m. Thursday morning by custodian Clarence Haase when he came to open the school.

The lock on the outside door of the school and the lock on the office doors had been broken. The money was locked in a metal box and locked in a locked file cabinet. Both these locks had been broken also.

Schockmel said nothing else had been taken and nothing damaged. The thieves apparently knew just where the money was, he said, and were interested only in the cash.

The Sheriff's department was called and deputies are investigating the break-in. The other schools in the county were reportedly broken into the same night, Big Hollow School and a school at Lake Zurich.

License Suspended

The drivers license of John D. Irving, Rt. 1, Box 1, Antioch, was suspended on a charge of driving while intoxicated, according to a report from the office of Secretary of State Paul Powell.

Antioch GOP Club Opens Headquarters

The Antioch Township Republican Club opened their 1966 Election Headquarters in the old First National Bank Building, on the southwest corner of Main and Lake Streets, in Antioch Monday, October 24.

"We are going all out to restore responsible government by electing the entire slate of Republican candidates "down the line" said Jim Olson, chairman of the Headquarters Committee, and Precinct Committeeman of Precinct 2, echoing the current Republican war cry, as enunciated by County Chairman Bob Milton. Harold Scheskie, Lloyd Van Deusen and Harry Strouse, all of whom attended the October 18th meeting of the ATRC. Scheskie is the Republican candidate for Sheriff, while Van Deuzen and Strouse are in the race for Judge.

Assisting Olson in the headquarters will be Pete Schaffer, Precinct Committeeman, Antioch 5, and Ole Mathisen, Indian Point.

The Women's Auxiliary of the ATRC appointed Mrs. Mabel Ann Harry as chairman of the Headquarters Committee, assisted by Mrs. Emogene Case and Mrs. Peter Schaffer.

One of the features at the ATRC headquarters will be a continuous demonstration on how to use the new Votomatic voting machines. Helen Burke, Precinct Committeeman, Antioch 4, will have one of the machines at the headquarters and will be in charge of the program.

Robert William White, a former Antioch resident, discusses with Governor Geo. Romney of Michigan his area of responsibility as a 1966-1967 Michigan State Legislative Fellowship winner. The results of White's legislative research and writings will be available to members of the Michigan State Senate to which he has been assigned for the coming 1967 session.

Trick Or Treat

Monday is Halloween, but Mayor Toft and the Village Board have proclaimed Sunday evening as the official time for Trick or Treating in the village. They are asking parents to cooperate by seeing to it that children are not allowed to go out Trick or Treating Monday night.

The action was taken because UNICEF officials asked permission to allow children to Trick or Treat for UNICEF on Sunday. Mayor Toft said many residents had complained about the practice of spreading the Trick or Treat forays over two or three days, so the board decided to limit the Halloween observance to one day, Sunday.

Whether or not the board will be successful in enforcing the edict remains to be seen. Perhaps youngsters will be perfectly happy to celebrate Halloween a day early. If they aren't, we don't envy the unhappy policemen their job.

Art Meierdirk, chairman of the police committee, says the children will be sent home if they're out knocking on doors Monday. Tsk, tsk! Just how does a big, burly policeman tell a happy little make-believe ghost that the village authorities decided Halloween is on Sunday this year and he missed it? Does he say, "Go home, now, kid, I don't care what your mother says, today is not Halloween in Antioch."

Methinks the Village Board should of stood in bed before issuing this pronouncement.

WAITING AT THE END OF THE ROAD

By Charles Watson

Strange thought! you say. But read on and think as you read: make up your mind to pick out facts as you find them; piece them together and then behold the result.

Daring men, we say, were those men who signed the Declaration of Independence in 1776; they were men who preserved their God-given energy until wisdom and not passion directed it.

True, they had a burning passion; but that passion was nourished by a single purpose and that purpose was to build a nation, wherein a government should be established, by the people and for the people.

Two great parties have been the result of this meager beginning; their achievements have been varied and invaluable; in other words, there was set in motion a competition of the keenest sort, drawing the ablest men from both parties to the front lines of action; vieing with each other at every turn to build a nation cradled in democracy, nursed by patriotism and handed down from generation to generation; showing a healthful growth and steady development, until we reached the very zenith of leadership. Unselfish in spirit, standing out as a haven to the oppressed; mothering the weak and putting to work the strong; building men as well as a nation; believing in God, giving men the right and opportunity to worship him as their conscience dictated, as well as sharing in every opportunity.

This is America, and now do you say we have arrived at the crossroad of National life; do we believe that we are unable to progress further under the influence of the groundwork of other days? Can it be that the ideals of the patriots who founded this nation and paved the way for America to become the greatest nation on earth are to be thought of as being right in their day, but obsolete in this day and age of a highly progressive civilization?

Can it be that men are no longer capable of owning and operating business enterprises financed by individual capital?

Let us repeat the words of former President Coolidge; "All that is needed is for us to give what we think America is worth."

This is a clarion call for men of sterling character to heed the call and join the forces of leadership that is needed in America today. They must be men who believe that the traditions of American progress are sacred and cannot be shelved for isms that are a veiled threat against our National life.

It is not enough that we pat ourselves on the back and say, "I have exercised my right with the ballot". We must be diligent in searching out the qualifications of the men for whom we vote and make it our sacred duty to express ourselves in a manner that is akin to watchfulness, and see that their solemn promises are carried out after they are elected.

True, we are in the midst of international turmoil; and just as true is the fact that this is not the first time we have faced problems that required the sanest kind of thinking and planning to enable us to emerge from the struggle, shall we say, scarred but unimpaired, ready to swing into line and set into action a sound and sane plan of action.

Your land and my land is a challenge to the best there is in us; problems both local and national beckon us to come forward; half-baked unprincipled loyalty is leading us into a quagmire of future uncertainty.

We must arouse ourselves to a deeper interest in governmental affairs and by so doing we will foil the thief that comes in the night to rob us of our cherished possessions.

While at heart our President seems to be in accord with the basic principles of our form of government, has he been unfortunate in selecting some of his intimate advisers or is it a case of misjudgment? Do we universally believe that our forefathers' conception of a commonwealth dedicated to the greatest good of the greatest number, guaranteeing to every citizen the utmost degree of personal independence and the least amount of governmental regulation that is consistent with the maintenance of a National estate is a sound and sane policy to pursue?

Destructive processes come under various categories and one that has gained great momentum is that of vesting in the Federal government, powers which make its regulatory functions an ever-increasing ominous threat to our cherished state and personal liberty.

Men and women voters of today are asking questions of vital importance but the answers to their questions from the seat of government are not satisfying the uncertainty that is generally felt.

Calling your powers of reason into action is all that is left for you to do; begin planning in your own mind, in the most unbiased manner, what you ought to do for the America of the future, for we are approaching "the end of the road".

Waiting at the end of the road we are going to come face to face with the spirit of Washington, Jefferson—the battle-scarred veterans of Lexington, Lincoln, Teddy Roosevelt, Cleveland and McKinley, as well as the veterans of two world wars who died to save men from the shackles of governmental bondage.

The need is not for a new party but let us unite our energies and purge the ranks of the parties that have guided us through the years in our onward march and oust the dwarfs who would sell their birth right and their fellow countrymen into the hands of the enemies of human society and national welfare and replace them with stout-hearted, red-blooded men who hold the American ideals of Government next to their hearts as their forefathers did.

Then, and then only, can we lay claim to a citizenship that is in line with the true loyalty of our dominant forefathers. Your ballot is a sacred instrument of your desire to give your nation a pledge of true loyalty, and guide to a destiny of loyalty and patriotic citizenship.

Letters to the Editor

October 18, 1966

To the Editor:

Mr. Henke, Finance Chairman of the County Board, has prepared so many different sets of figures that he evidently has confused himself and one wonders if he is "informed about the true facts of the county's finances" as he alleges ACT is not.

The financial worksheet Mr. Henke presented to the County Board at the September meeting was a deal different from the one he presented to Mr. Olinger, ACT representative, at his October 6 meeting with the Finance Committee. However, let's assume Mr. Henke knew what he was doing Oct. 6 and check that finance sheet.

Budget requests of the Corporate fund	$4,506,184
Deduct: cuts made by Finance Committee	403,602
	$4,102,582
Now, let's deduct the estimated Income	3,140,600
	$ 961,982

the balance to be supported by taxes

No mention was made to Mr. Olinger of the levy for the Building Commission though it was on the Sept. worksheet and we know it won't be abated. So we subtract the money brought in by that levy..... 961,982
Building Commission levy 460,000

	$ 501,982

If the ceiling which Act has on the November ballot is imposed, taxes will bring in $ 486,550

(deficit) $ 15,432

Mr. Henke mentioned that $100,000 was necessary for moving expenses, and $60,000 as "token" furnishings for the new Administration (no courtrooms) building. That $160,000 plus $15,432 makes a possible deficit of $175,432, not $635,432 as Mr. Henke asserts. And, since the News Sun puts the "take" from the elimination of the Township collector at $1,700,000 which Mr. Henke underestimates at $1,450,000, we find an extra $250,000 tossed right in our laps. $250,000 minus $175,432 leaves $74,568 as a balance, not a deficit at all. Stopping the leaks in a number of departments could realize a much bigger income to the Corporate fund than the $3,140,600 pegged by Mr. Henke also, we might add.)

October 18 the County Board meets again to discuss finances and the Budget. Wonder what new figures Mr. Henke will have!

Dear Editor:

On behalf of the 26,000 Lions and the visually handicapped people of our great State of Illinois, I wish to express to you our most sincere thanks and apreciation for helping us to tell the public about Lions Candy Day for the Blind, held on Friday, October 7, 1966.

Lions Candy Day each year is the major project of our 572 Clubs to raise funds for Blind Activities. These include support of:

Hadley School for the Blind, Winnetka, Illinois
Leader Dogs for the Blind, Rochester, Michigan
Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness
Dialogue, a recodred service for the blind
Illinois Camp Lions for Visually Handicapped Children, Hastings Lake, Lake Villa, Illinois
. . . plus the gifts of braille writers, transportation and scholarships to our blind friends.

Needless to say, Lions Candy Day benefits many wonderful programs for the blind and this year's event should be the most successful. Much of this has been due to the picture and editorial space you have so generously given.

As a result, thousands of blind people will achieve most important objectives in their sightless world — independence, mobility, education and recreational opportunities. These all help toward employment and more meaningful lives. Many, many thanks for your kindness and generosity, I am,

Sincerely,
Normal R. Dahl,
PDG, State Chairman
Lions of Illinois
Blind Activities Committee

STATE WARS ON DOPE

Cooperation between the Illinois Division of Narcotics Control and various governmental agencies, both state and federal, was emphasized in the August report of Joseph J. Healy, superintendent of the division, to Ross V. Randolph, director of the Department of Public Safety.

Superintendent Healy reported that division inspectors arrested 26 persons, conducted 13 registrant investigations and 49 non-registrant investigations. The 13 registrant investigations were of physicians, pharmacists, wholesalers and others required by law to be registered with the state and licensed to deal in, handle or dispense narcotics in any form.

One of the seven persons convicted in August for various violations of the narcotics laws was sentenced to a 15-to-30 year penitentiary term for the sale of heroin.

Those guys who talk at farm meetings should remember the capacity of the mind to absorb is limited to what the seat can endure.

ALONG THE WAY with Annie Mae

Which is Witch?

This being the weekend for the spooks, ghosts, goblins, witches, etc., bring to mind the safety of all little ones while on their trick or treat trecking!! For all you parents: don't let them wear high heels and long dresses; make sure the masks have sufficient space for the eyes, and definitely don't let them carry a lighted pumpkin. If we avoid some of these hazards, it certainly will be a more fun-filled Halloween.

Football Fever

Ray and Pat Lorenz along with Dave and Ann Buck, will be spending the weekend in Madison to see the Wisconsin - Michigan game. Think I'll be a stow-away, there's nothing like the crisp fall weather and a football game.

Still Gadding—Those Gastons

After traveling thru the Ozarks and other points of interest Don and Helen Gaston are now at home. They did it the smart and inexpensive way and hauled their camper-trailer right behind them. Also at home after spending a week in Greencastle, Indiana, are Margaret Gaston and her friend, Hazel Sibley. While there they traveled thru Brown County and they also had the honor of pouring tea for a sorority at De Pauw University.

Proud Grandparents

Russell and Jean Homan are popping their buttons over the birth of their first grandchild and grandson, presented them by their daughter, Ellen Bertler.

Trophy Case Bursting at Seams

For the past five years the N. W. Conference has had cross country teams, and for four out of the five Grant has won. But this year Antioch brought it home in fine style. Congratulations.

Honored by Governor

Governor Kerner made a special trip to Antioch Wednesday to honor the Antioch High School Band with a trophy for first in the state. More congratulations to a fine school and in particular for their conductor, Mr. Joseph Rush.

Smokey Says Prevent Fires

Hearing that fire siren on the average of 3 or 4 times a day brings to mind the carelessness with which we use matches. The fire chief has all but pleaded with us not to light any brush or leaves.

Let's take a word to the wise as sufficient! !

Beware Again

That blonde home wrecker I've spoken of is now in stiff competition with a hazel eyed brunette. One's trying to horn in on the other's ossessions. Should prove interesting.

Happy Birthday to You, Kay

Kay Schaefer was feeling sorry for herself the other day cuz no one had remembered her birthday. So her bowling chums thought a belated card would be appropriate. To their surprise she was bluffing and received a belated card a month previous to her birthday.

Mighty Hunters Are We

Traveling on horseback up into the mountains, sleeping on the rocky wide open spaces, cooking their own food (ugh), contending with snakes, and a blizzard to boot. Sounds like a western, but is was for real when Dave Heath, Lew Simon, Jack Heick, and Charlie Wertz spent two weeks in Colorado and Wyoming hunting elk and deer. A lot of laughs and fun netted them six deer.

Till next week,

Your Congressman Reports.....

By Cong. Robert McClory

As the second session of the 89th Congress draws to a close, many claims will be made regarding its accomplishments. Much less will be said about what the Congress failed to accomplish.

Foremost among the measures that the Congress failed to act upon are the six proposals for expediting and modernizing the work of the Congress recommended unanimously in July by the Joint Committee on the Organization of Congress. These recommendations, if adopted, would have increased minority staffing, improved congressional budgetary control, enabled committees to act without being hamstrung by committee chairmen (as in the case of Chairman Adam Clayton Powell at the present session), created a House Committee on Standards and Conduct, and continued the Joint Committee with authority to study and recommend additional reforms and changes.

There has been much congressional and public criticism of the seemingly endless sessions of the Congress. However, the failure at this session to take any action whatsoever to improve and modernize congressional procedures leaves little likelihood that future congressional work will be expedited or that future congressional sessions will be shorter.

Another unfortunate shortcoming of the present session is the failure of the Congress to enact any substantial anti-crime legislation. The rising crime rate is regarded by the public as an issue second in importance only to the Viet Nam war. Yet legislation — even proposals recommended by the Department of Justice (such as the immunity bill)—were pigeonholed with little or no ceremony.

Subjects such as Home Rule for the District of Columbia, permissive prayer in public schools, improved methods for jury selection, and truth in lending, were among the many highly publicized issues upon which the Congress failed to take action.

The most flagrant shortcoming of the present session was the failure to determine the total obligations of the Administration's programs, including the war in Vietnam. The inflation spiral, along with the depressed stock market prices, high interest rates and tight money, reflect the Administration's undisclosed yet huge expenditures and continuing obligations, for which a day of reckoning will surely come —after the election.

When the concealed figures become known, there will be a demand for tax revision in order to avoid financial calamity. This is not to suggest that the Congress will not eventually measure up to this responsibility. It is apparent, however, that political considerations have dominated the obvious obligation to disclose the full facts and to meet the issues head-on.

Surely some of the "unfinished" business of the session just closing will turn out to be the "emergency" business of the 90th Congress when it convenes on January 3, 1967.

The thoughtful driver always knows what to do when approaching a school zone. He reduces his speed and he sharpens his lookout for youngsters who might be on their way to and from school. Slow down in school zones. There are many occasions when a child's safety will be in your hands.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU BURKIN

Democratic candidates for the state legislature must have been more than a little upset by Gov. Otto Kerner's announcement last week that he would ask for an increase in the state motor fuel tax rate to bring in more revenue so Illinois highway needs can be met.

Few responsible legislators will argue with the need for more revenue to build new roads and improve existing highways, but the Democrats must feel that Gov. Kerner could have timed his announcement a little better than he did.

It takes a courageous candidate, indeed, to go to the people and say "I am going to Springfield and vote to raise your gas taxes because we all know we need better roads and they cost money."

The Democratic candidates are now in the position of turning their backs on the Democratic governor or campaigning on the issue of higher taxes.

Of course it is refreshing to have an administrative leader come out before the election and state what he intends to do, but it does indicate a strange concept of political leadership.

Republican Senator Candidate Charles Percy is having difficulty deciding where to land on the so-called "open occupancy" issue because he is not finding a great deal of unanimity on the issue among his running mates on the GOP ticket.

Percy has indicated that he is for the watered-down version of the housing section of the 1966 Civil Rights Bill which excludes owner-occupied premises from the rent or "sell to all" provisions of the proposed legislation.

Republican speakers at a rally on Chicago's southwest side last Sunday included Harris Rowe, GOP candidate for State Treasurer, and Congressional and legislative candidates were almost unanimous in denouncing the "open occupancy" proposals.

Of course this is understandable since this area was the scene of racial demonstrations last summer.

Waukegan Mayor Robert Sabonjian has brought considerable calumny on his head because of his flat-out statements he is against enforced "open occupancy," but at least he doesn't have to stop and remember which group he is appearing before when he states his position.

Incidentally, the Chicago rally, sponsored by Edmund Kucharski, GOP candidate for Cook County Treasurer, used a fur fashion show to attract an audience of nearly 400 women with Harriet's Imperial Furs of Wadsworth furnishing the fur fashions and the models.

Most candidates for the state legislature tend to stress proposed legislation in fields in which they are particularly knowledgeable and North Chicago Police Chief John Matijevich, Democratic candidate for State Representative, is no exception.

Matijevich, who served as police magistrate in North Chicago before being selected to succeed the popular Jacob (Jake) Novak as police chief, is advocating extension of the state police training program.

At the present time the state pays half the cost for a special training course for probationary officers. Matijevich would like to extend the program to include advance training in trafic control, highway safety and other police specialties.

There is some grumbling among Republicans that the Lake County Central Committee is not doing much to support county candidates financially which accounts in some measure for the dearth of visible signs of campaigning among county aspirants.

This could also explain the recent optimism being displayed by Vincent (Pat) Ryan, Democratic candidate for county treasurer.

Most of the county action is being supplied by the GOP candidates for Associate Circuit Judge, Harry Strouse of Wauconda, and Lloyd Van Deusen, of Waukegan.

This could mean the GOP is more fearful of Waukegan Magistrate John Hughes than they are of the other Democratic county candidates and are saving their ammunition for the judicial race.

Miss Election Day 1966 urges everyone eligible to vote Nov. 8. And to be sure your vote counts, watch "I See Chicago: The Illinois Voters Test" Tuesday, Nov. 1 on WBBM-TV.

TV Show To Test Ill. Voters' Knowledge

Chicago-area viewers will get an opportunity to make sure their vote counts in the upcoming elections by participating in the "I See Chicago: The Illinois Voters Test," in color, Tuesday, November 1, (9:00-10:00 p.m) on WBBM-TV, Channel 2.

The home audience will be invited to complete special test forms and compare their answers with selected test groups from The Illinois League of Women Voters Oak Lawn Jaycees and newly naturalized American citizens. Answers to the test will be given during the broadcast.

WBBM-TV Newmen Fahey Flynn and John Drury will ask the questions and give the answers.

Actor Vincent Genova portrays 12 separate roles, illustrating the test questions and demonstrating the kinds of mistakes that each year disqualify thousands of ballots.

Test forms will appear in that day's Chicago Tribune, Chicago's American, Chicago Sun-Times and Chicago Daily News.

Door-To-Door Drive To Help The Retarded

Antioch will have 83 volunteers in the door-to-door march for the Retarded Children's Appeal Sunday, Nov., 6, it was announced by Mrs. John A. Hilb, 4 Lake Dr., Antioch area chairman.

Fahey Flynn, WBBM-TV news broadcaster, is serving as general chairman for the campaign sponsored by the Illinois Association for the Mentally Retarded. Marchers in the city and 34 suburbs will seek to raise $125,000 for local educational, recreational and welfare services and to support medical research.

The IAMR supports the Research Fund of the National Association for Retarded Children which is financing studies of chromosomal abnormalities, errors of metabolism, prematurity, maternal infections and obstetrical techniques, all factors in mental retardation.

"Furthermore," says Flynn "we are intensifying our public education campaign against measles, another cause of mental retardation. If all children of susceptible age were vaccinated, measles could be eliminated in two years.

"Kim Fisher, 10, our Poster Child, is a measles victim for whom the vaccine came too late. Kim was a health, bright child until she was stricken with measles at the age of two. As happens in about 4,000 measles cases each year, measles encephalitis developed and Kim suffered severe brain damage as a result.

"Your gift to our volunteers will help train retarded children like Kim in Chicago area special schools and also aid medical research in finding ways tot prevent other causes of retardation."

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Homan became grandparents for the first time on Friday evening, Oct. 21, when their daughter, Mrs. Charles Bertler, gave birth to a son in Evanston Hospital. He has been named Charles Anton Bertler, Jr., and weighed in at 7 lbs., 9 oz.

The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bertler of Skokie, Ill. The Charles Bertlers live in Chicago, where he is employed at the Hotpoint Division of General Electric Co. The former Ellen Homan is a graduate of Antioch High School, and of Kendall College in Evanston.

VISIT IN CALIFORNIA

Leslie Hanke and sisters, Irma Hostetler and Betty Fischer have returned home from a week spent in California. They flew to San Francisco, visiting the Clyde McClain family in Penole, and while there took in the Muir Woods and all points of interest in that area.

They drove down the coast, stopping at Carmel overnight, then continuing down to Santa Barbara where they visited Margaret Hostetter and the Charles Doerr family. In the Los Angeles area they visited the Victor Krolls of Altadena, the Dennis Orrs of Santa Ana and the Charles Hostetters of Alhambra.

After taking the tours of Disneyland, Knottsberry Farm, the Wax Museum and Hollywood they returned home by plane.

Following the meeting a Halloween party was held. Refreshments were served.

Xmas Bonus For Employees Totals Over One Million

Abbott Laboratories has announced the largest employee cash profit bonus in its 78-year history — $1,388,000.

That's enough money to buy 462 new cars at $3,000. In a line they would stretch about 1 1/3 miles.

It's enough money to put a color TV set into 3,470 homes.

It's $50 each day for 76 years—even without interest.

And most of the money will go to Abbott employees here in Lake County.

The money will be shared by the over 5000 Abbott men and women at the North Chicago plant and by another 2,400 employees in other parts of the nation. All but the topmost Abbott employees share in the fund.

This year's bonus is $105,000 larger than last year's record pay-out because the profit sharing fund is linked directly to Abbott profits. the 8% rise in the bonus reflects a similar rise in the company's before-tax earnings.

Each Abbott employee will be issued a bonus check in early December, with plenty of time for the money's impact to be felt on local pre-Christmas shopping.

Early in November, each employee will be notified of his exact share in the record bonus pool. His share depends on the size of the pool—up 8% this year—and his length of service.

To Repeat H. S. Play

The play put on by the Fine Arts Dept. of Antioch High School last weekend, "Dial M for Murder", will be repeated Saturday night at the High School auditorium.

The Fine Arts Dept. will host the Northwest Suburban Conference drama groups for the repeat performance of the play. However, the public is welcome to attend.

Jim Corrigan is directing the murder mystery, assisted by Miss Mary Baehler. The curtain will go up at 8 p.m. Saturday at Antioch High School.

New Members Of Lions Club

The Antioch Lions Club welcomed five new members into the Club at the Monday night meeting.

New members are Jim Erdman, sponsored by Ward Lear; Roger Broders, sponsored by Bill Seemann; Irving Buchta, sponsored by Dick Radke; Richard Endries, sponsored by Ev Oftedahl, and Charles Wertz, sponsored by Clarence Olson.

Dr. Charles Solar gave a report on the feasibility of putting a dome on the pool. President Bill Seemann reported a good turnout for the meeting.

Fourteen University of Illinois faculty are members of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

4-H'ers Write to Rhodesian Friends

Lake County 4-H Club members are now actively participating in a people-to-people program on a personal basis according to Ray T. Nicholas, Lake County Farm Adviser.

Through the cooperation of Prime Minister Ian Smith of Rhodesia, Farm Adviser Nicholas obtained the names and addresses of several young people enrolled in the Young Farmers and Natural Resources Club, which is the equivalent of our 4-H Clubs.

Many Lake County 4-H Club members expressed a desire to correspond with young citizens of Rhodesia since this country has been very much in the news lately. The 4-H club members feel that they can obtain a better understanding of the youth of other nations by getting the people-to-people program on a more personal basis by exchanging letters.

For many years the 4-H Club Foundation has engaged in promoting the International Farm Youth Exchange project. In this program young people from the United States live with host families of other countries. At the same time foreign youth spend time living with families in the United States. Several Lake County farm families have served as hosts to youth from numerous foreign countries.

The people-to-people program is one of several activities available to 4-H members. Others include Citizenship, Camping, Public Speaking, Safety, Recreation, Career Exploration, Demonstrations and others.

Tourist Guide for Handicapped Available

and their families will benefit from a directory of more than 200 tourist attractions issued by the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped.

Entitled "Guide to the National Parks and Monuments for Handicapped Tourists," the directory of the nation's parks indicates whether museums, visitiors' centers, and concession stands are accessible to individuals with ambulatory limitations.

The guide forewarns persons in wheelchairs whether they can expect flights of steps, narrow doorways, inaccessible toilets or other architectural barriers.

Cardiac patients and persons who are affected by high altitudes will find the directory gives the elevation of park features and the grade of hiking trails.

Harold Russell, Chairman of the President's Committee, states in the foreword that more and more of the severely handicapped are living independently, are going places and doing things. The handicapped traveler, he states, should "be entitled to enjoy the grandeur of our natural resources without facing the embarrassment of being rejected at the end of his journey."

Single free copies of the Guide are available from the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped, Washington, D. C. 20210.

MISSSIONS IN OUR NEIGHBORING CHURCHES

The regular meeting of the WSCS of the Antioch Methodist Church will be held this month in the evening, at 7:45, Nov. 2. This has been set as Guest Night, with guest speakers from neighboring churches invited to speak to the group on the mission work in their respective churches.

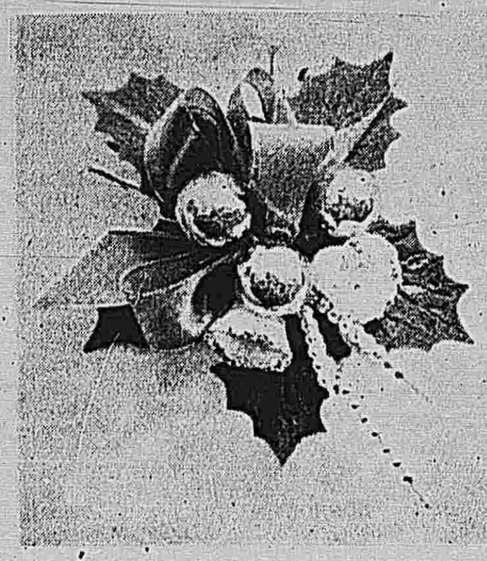

Mrs. O. W. Turner will begin the meeting with a worship service and the business will be kept to a minimum. Hostesses for the meeting will be members of Wesley Evening Circle under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Maplethorpe and Mrs. Emery Chandler.

Any persons interested in this program are welcome to attend.

If you can't help the wheels of progress roll, at least don't be the rock that stops them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald F. Klein

Miss Battista Weds Ronald F. Klein

Miss Rose Mary Battista became the bride of Ronald F. Klein at 2 p.m. Saturday, October 8, at the Millburn Congregational Church in Millburn.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Scotty Birdsell of Lindenhurst and Mr. Michael Battista of Lake Geneva. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klein of Lake Villa. The Rev. L. H. Messersmith officiated in the double ring ceremony at which the bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride's gown, which was made and styled by her mother, was a floor length gown of Venice raised rose lace over white satin, with long sleeves accented at the wrists with ruffles. The modified empire waistline held the chapel train which was later converted into a bouffant train for the reception.

Her shoulder length illusion veil was held by a brilliant crystal and tear drop pearl bejeweled crown and she carried a bouquet of white roses and orchids.

Maid of honor was Darlene Teml of Antioch with Katherine Mary Ksiazyk, the bride's sister, of Pell Lake, and Linda Menning of Chicago as bridesmaids. They wore floor length empire gowns of mint green with tapestry brocaded bodice top and floating streamer trains, elbow length sleeves with sheath jersey skirts. The matching headpieces were held by a brocaded star point and they carried bouquets of carnations and variegated colored pompons.

James Ksiazyk of Pell Lake was the groom's best man and Noel Birr of Antioch and John Menning of Chicago served as ushers.

Over 200 persons attended the reception held at the Hartford Plaza in downtown Chicago following the wedding. The guests were served a dinner of prime rib with sparkling burgundy as a beverage and musicians from CBS-TV entertained them.

The couple have returned to Antioch to reside at the Tiffany Arms Apartments following a two-week honeymoon in Miami Beach, Fla.

The bride is a graduate of Antioch Community High School and is employed by Earl Stringer Dodge in Antioch as a bookkeeper.

The groom is a graduate of Niles Township High School and is a Vending Technician in Northlake.

Social Notes

By Del Jahneke

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jacobsen, Beach Grove, were recent hosts to two of Mr. Jacobsen's cousins—Mrs. Joseph Seskevich and Mrs. Evelyn Evans, both of Vandalia, Ohio. Mrs. Seskevich and Mrs. Evans were able to stay for several days, so there was plenty of time for reminiscing about old friends and relatives, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rathmann, Oakwood Knolls, along with approximately 85 other "Telephone Pioneers," took a chartered bus from Waukegan to Starved Rock State Park on Saturday, Oct. 22. "Telephone Pioneers" are the men and women who have worked for the Illinois Bell Telephone Company for 20 years or more.

There were three bus loads from Waukegan, Highland Park and Deerfield who attended this outing. A dinner was served at Starved Rock Lodge, with cards and movies for those who did not care to take any of the walking and climbing tours for others in the party. Mr. and Mrs. Rathmann took advantage of the lovely autumn weather, to do considerable hiking. Although they enjoyed the day, their sore muscles felt otherwise the following day!

The Bernard Stadick family of Antioch have just returned from a three day stay at beautiful Devil's Lake Park, located near Baraboo, Wis. They have spent many wonderful visits at various state and national parks, throughout the country, traveling and staying in their comfortable travel trailer.

See Astrodome On Texas Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Nelson, Lake Street, Antioch, returned Friday from a month's vacation in Texas. The Nelsons visited Major and Mrs. F. L. McKinney. (Mrs. McKinney is the former Charlotte Nelson.) Major McKinney is stationed at Dyess Air Force Base near Abilene.

The Nelsons took a side trip to Houston to see the Astrodome, which Mrs. Nelson described as "fantastic." No events were scheduled in the Astrodome at that time, but bullfights will soon be held there.

Liewehr-Selzer Wedding At Prince of Peace Church

By Mrs. Bernice Bernau

Miss Roselle T. Liewehr, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Liewehr of Chicago became the bride of John P. Selzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Selzer, 2306 East Valley Drive, Lindenhurst, in a 5 p.m. nuptial mass on October 8. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. David Lynch in Prince of Peace Catholic Church in Lake Villa. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Jack Liewehr. The couple also received the Papal Blessing.

The bride's gown was of nylon organza over bridal taffeta, with chantilly lace at the bottom of the full skirt coming up to form a heart and revealing an underskirt of chantilly lace. The fitted bodice was chantilly lace as were the long fitted sleeves. Her detachable chapel train was edged with the same lace and fell from her shoulders. Her elbow length veil was caught with a double open queen's crown of brilliants. Her colonial bouquet of white orchids was centered in white carnations.

Mrs. Joseph Panek, Jr., of Grandwood Park, was her sister's matron of honor, and Mr. Panek was Mr. Selzer's groomsman. Miss Theresa Jakubowicz of Chicago and Miss Maureen Miller of Lindenhurst, the groom's sister, were bridesmaids. David Hay of Lindenhurst and Paul Liewehr, the bride's brother, were ushers. John Miller of Lindenhurst served his brother's wedding mass.

The bride's attendants were attired in floor lengtth gowns of two shades of pink. The fitted bodices were of rosy pink satin and the straight skirts were pale pink crepe. Their short pale pink veils were held with a bow of the darker pink satin. They carried colonial bouquets of pink rosebuds centered in pale pink carnations.

The couple was feted at a dinner and dance held immediately after the ceremony at the V.F.W. hall in Lake Villa. After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home at 270 N. Lake St., Mundelein, where Mr. Selzer is employed at the Piggly Wiggly food store.

Mr. Selzer is a graduate of Antioch High School.

Among the out of town guests were great-aunts and uncles of the bride from Racine, Wis., and Mr. and Mrs. John Molitor of Lake City, maternal grandparents of the groom. His paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Selzer of Spring Grove, who three days later observed their golden wedding anniversary, were unable to attend, due to the illness of his grandmother.

American Legion Auxiliary News

By Del Jahneke

Mrs. John Schultz, North Chicago, 10th District Rehabilitation Chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary, announces that there will be a special 2nd Division Rehabilitation Conference, to be held at the Belvidere Legion Home, Belvidere, Illinois, on Sunday, October 30, at 2 p.m. All Post Commanders, Unit Presidents, and their Rehabilitation chairmen are asked to attend this Conference.

Registration will be from 12 to 2 p.m. with the Conference starting promptly at 2 p.m. Those attending will receive their Rehabilitation packet and a personalized pen when they register. Department (state) Legion Commander Fred Merritt of Salem; Department Auxiliary President Mrs. Louis Unfer of Champaign; and Frank Bottigliere and Mrs. R. E. Hanneman, State Legion and Auxiliary Rehabilitation Chairmen, will conduct this meeting. Mrs. John W. Horan, Jr., is Antioch Unit's Rehabilitation Chairman.

On Monday, October 31, the 10th District American Legion Auxiliary Board meeting will be held at the Highwood Legion Home, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Ray Rathmann, Antioch Unit President and District Treasurer, and Mrs. Edward Jahneke, 10th District Pubicity-Radio-TV chairman, will be present at that session.

The Antioch Unit will be the "hostess unit" when the 10th District American Legion Auxiliary holds their first meeting of the year, under the leadership of Mrs. Herbert Gleason, Libertyville, 10th District Director, at the Antioch Legion Home, on Wednesday, November 9th, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Bernard Stadick, Antioch Unit 1st vice president, will be in charge of the arrangements for this large meeting.

November 11th, Veterans' Day, is also the Antioch Unit's meeting night. The Antioch American Legion and the Auxiliary will be having a dinner party then, with the Antioch Unit holding a very short business meeting.

Commander and Mrs. Bernard Stadick; Senior Vice Commander and Mrs. Ray Rathmann, and Past Commanders Ed. and Mrs. Jahneke, John W. Horan, Jr., and Mrs. Horan, and John L. and Mrs. Horan, all attended the Past Commanders' and Past Presidents' Dinner Party, held at the Holiday House, on Oct. 15. There were approximately 150 members and guests, who greatly enjoyed the dinner and the entertainment afterwards. Dancing for everyone concluded a pleasant evening. This year, Ed Jahneke has been presidcent for the Past Commanders' Club of Lake County.

Manifesto To Be Read At St. Stephens

A 16-point "manifesto" to be read Sunday, October 30, in St. Stephen Lutheran Church, Antioch, will begin a period of self-examination and renewal at the church as well as in 6,217 other congregations of the Lutheran Church in America.

The Rev. Wilton Anderson, pastor of St. Stephen, said the manifesto consists of a "check list" of characteristics that a congregation alert to modern times must consider.

The document will be read from the pulpit on Reformation Sunday. The LCA approved the manifesto and accompanying two-year study at its church-wide convention last June. At the 1964 convention, the LCA became concerned that some of its congregations may have lost touch with modern changes in private and community life, and it ordered a study of the nature and mission of the congregation. The manifesto is the result.

Study materials are being prepared to help congregations strengthen themselves in terms of the mandate. The Rev. Dr. Franklin C. Fry, speaking of the manifesto, said: "I hail it with joy and gratitude. It has the potential for immeasurable good."

The Lutheran Church in America, with 3,265,000 members, is the largest Lutheran body in North America. St. Stephen congregation is a newly formed congregation in Antioch supported by the LCA. Presently meeting in the Antioch Community High School, the congregation plans to build a church soon.

A.F.S. Puts On Drive

The American Field Service is putting out a call to all Antioch High School area residents to get behind their students and save all R. C. Cola and Diet-Rite save-a-seal caps which are worth one cent to help the A.F.S. organization to raise the remainder of the money necessary to finance the foreign exchange student here at A.C.H.S..

Diana Stagg is enjoying her stay here in Antioch with the Walker Lyons family, and the students at A.C.H.S. are benefiting greatly from her presence. The last schoolday of each month has been declared "save-a-seal" day, and if every resident of the community who drinks the R.C. or Diet-Rite beverages would have the caps and give them to a student to bring to school, the organization would soon reach its financial goal.

George Hahn of the Hahn Jewelry Store has offered to donate a Speiel identification bracelet to the boy or girl who brings in the most caps on October 31, the kick-off day. So come on parents and friends—help your students save.

The adult group of A.F.S. will meet at the high school on November 3 at 8 p.m. in room 208. Anyone who is interested in attending and finding out more about A. F.S. is urged to come.

SPEND MONTH ON EUROPEAN TOUR

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oschmann of Lake Catherine near Antioch, returned last week from a month's tour of several European countries.

The Oschmanns visited Germany during the Oktoberfest, Austria, Jugoslavia, Bulgaria, Turkey, Greece, Italy and Switzerland. Istanbul is fabulous, reports Mrs. Oschmann, and they wished they could spend more time there. That city and Athens were the high spots of the trip to them.

The Oschmanns visited relatives of Mr. Oschmann in Switzerland.

OFF TO FLORIDA

Mr. and Mrs. George Gundelach, Rt. 5, Antioch, left for Florida last week.

HOME-MADE VANILLA ICE CREAM

(makes ½ gal.)
1 cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons flour
3 1/3 cups (2 large cans) undiluted evaporated milk
1 cup water
2 eggs
1 tablespoon vanilla

Combine sugar, salt and flour in top of double boiler. Add 1 cup evaporated milk and water. Cook over hot water until mixture is hot and very slightly thickened, stirring occasionally. Beat eggs. Stir a small portion of the sugar-milk mixture into the eggs. Return to rest of mixture in double boiler and cook for 2-3 minutes longer, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add vanilla and remaining 2 1/3 cups of evaporated milk. Chill thoroughly. Pour into freezer. Cover. Freeze using ice-salt mixture in proportion recommended for freezer. See directions with your freezer. When ice cream is frozen, pour off brine. Remove dasher and pack with ice and salt. Allow to stand 1½ to 2 hours to ripen.

Antioch To Lose An Old Landmark

A landmark in Antioch—the Mortensen Hotel on the corner of Main and Orchard Sts.—will disappear as soon as the new owners can find a firm to demolish it.

The Phillips Petroleum Co. will build a modern service station where the old hotel has stood since about 1890. The station will be one of the Phillips 66 top models, according to T. D. Sullivan, Phillips representative. When completed, it will represent an investment of about $100,000, according to Sullivan.

The new station will have two service bays, and will have a canopy covering the service area.

The sale of the property to Phillips brought the matter of re-zoning the land before the newly-formed Antioch Zoning Board last spring as the first re-zoning matter to be handled by the board. The property was purchased from Chris and Betty Mortensen, owners for about 25 years.

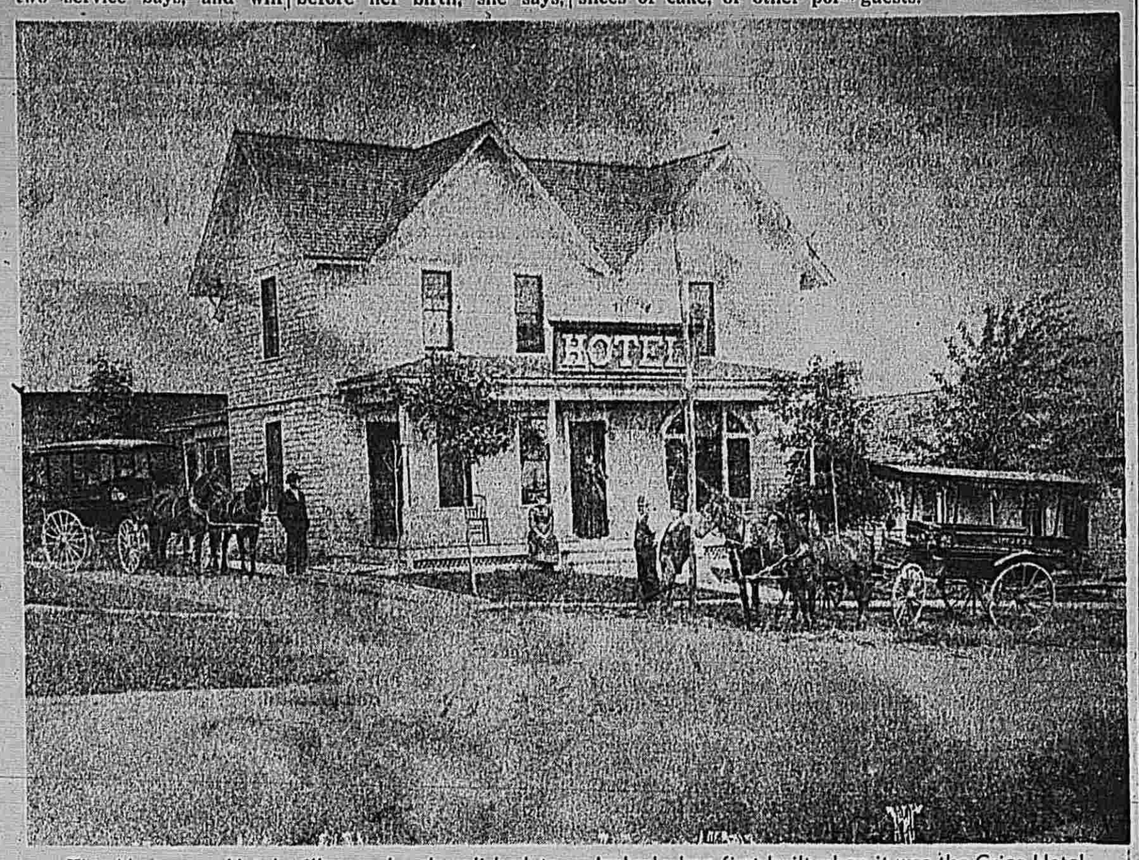

The hotel was built by Lyman B. Grice about 1890. His daughter, Marguerite Grice Nelson, still lives in Antioch. The hotel was sold to Charles Lux about 1902, before her birth, she says, but she remembers her parents telling about their days in the hotel business.

Summer visitors came to Antioch by train in those days, and Mrs. Nelson remembers her father telling about picking them up at the station, with a horse-drawn "bus." He also took summer visitors to the old Fenderson Hotel out at Channel Lake.

Mrs. Grice sometimes reminisced about the job of cooking for the hotel patrons. Those were the days of hearty eaters, when keepers of a hotel wouldn't have thought of serving individual slices of cake, or other portions, to guests. Chili sauce was cooked by the tub, meat picked up at the railroad station, and the food had to be good and plentiful.

The property later was owned by Barney Naber, then Arthur Edgar. Edgar sold it to the Mortensens, who maintained the hotel for about 25 years.

The Mortensens have moved to a home on Orchard St., and plan to do some traveling now that their days in the hotel business are past. After years of operating a hotel, they will now try being guests.

The Mortenson Hotel will soon be demolished to make room for a Phillips 66 Station. Here it is as it looked when first built when it was the Grice Hotel.

Recipe of Month Suits Season's Goblins

The season's ghosts and goblins won't be in any mood for tricks when they're treated with this pumpkin praline pie, richly topped with whipped cream and crunchy pecan pralines. The pecan pralines are also hidden in the golden pumpkin filling. This recipe comes from the files of Karen Stedronsky, Northern Illinois Gas Company's home economist, who recommends making the praline crunch first and then the pie filling.

PRALINE CRUNCH

½ cup butter
1 cup sugar (white)
2 cups coarsely chopped pecan meats

Directions: Melt butter in skillet. Stir in sugar and pecan meats. Cook over moderate fire, stirring constantly until sugar mixture turns golden brown. Remove ingredients from heat and turn out on piece of aluminum foil to cool. Crumple pralines into small pieces.

PRALINE PUMKKIN PIE

1 envelope Knox gelatin
½ cup cold water
¾ cup light brown sugar
1 can pumpkin (1-lb. can)
½ cup milk
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
¾ teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup cream, whipped for filling
1 cup cream, whipped for garnish.
1 baked pie shell

Directions: Measrue water and pour into saucepan. Sprinkle gelatin over water and place pan on low heat to cook, stirring constantly until gelatin dissolves. Remove pan from heat, add brown sugar and stir until dissolved. In separate mixing bowl, combine pumpkin milk, salt, cinnamon and nutmeg. Gradually blend in gelatin mixture and stir ingredients until smooth. Fold in whipped cream.

Sprinkle half of Praline Crunch over bottom pastry shell. Pour pumpkin mixture into baked pie shell, chill until firm. At serving time garnish pie with additional whipped cream and remaining Praline Crunch.

Set Date For Fall Camporee

The Northwest District of the North Shore Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America will hold their 1966 Fall Camporee on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, October 28, 29 and 30.

The location of the Camporee will be the Capt. Daniel Wright Woods at St. Mary's and Everett Roads on the Des Plaines River just south of Libertyville.

Committee Chairman Richard Sheldon said that he expects a record turn-out of Scouts for the event. Competitive activities are planned and will be conducted on Saturday afternoon.

All activities will be performed on the patrol system and first, second and third place ribbons will be awarded. The Top Notcher Award will be presented to the unit which is judged the highest in overall camping ability.

MOOSE TOPICS

By Lillian Birdsell

Over 150 persons were present at a wedding reception held at the Antioch Moose Home Saturday evening, Oct. 22, to help celebrate the marriage of Barbara Warner to Charles Seelhoff. The Rev. Harold Nelson officiated at the double ring ceremony held at St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Lindenhurst at 7:30 p.m. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Mark of Lake Villa, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilke of Huntley, Ill.

The bride was radiant in her floor length sheath gown of baby blue bridal satin with matching colored long sleeved alencon lace jacket. Her shoulder length veil was held by a blue satin clustered rose and she carried a bouquet of Zimbidium orchids surrounded by a cascade of snow drifts.

Barbara J. Kotlarchik of Elmwood Park was the bride's attendant and she wore a green velvet dress with a brocaded bodice. The headpiece was of green veiling held by seed pearl sand crystals, and her bouquet was an orchid set in green net and ribbon.

The groom's attendant was Mr. Daniel Reiker of Round Lake the guests were well feted with an overabundance of food set buffet style and the Rhythm Kings supplied the music for dancing.

The bride and groom are both active members of the Antioch Moose, as are the bride's mother and father. Mr. Mark is the present Jr. Governor of the lodge and his wife, Gerry, is a Collegian of the Chapter.

Following a breakfast served to 18 members representing the differnet Moose lodges of the States Associtalon, Mr. Walter Malinoski, vice-president of the Third District conducted a very interesting and informal meeting at the Antioch Moose Homee eeEueneday au pgk Home Sunday morning, Oct. 23. The main topic of conversation was one to create a more interesting program for the 3rd District by standardizing the importance of the value of the District.

Mr. Malinoski expressed the necessity of each governor to explain thoroughly to the members the functions of the 3rd District, what it is and what it consists of.

There were four governors present at this meeting representing the following lodges: Zion, Woodstock, Wauconda and Antioch. Each one in turn stressed their views on the subject. Attending the meeting from the Antioch Moose with Governor Richard Jorgensen, were Scotty Birdsell and Senior Regent Lillian Birdsell. The next meeting for the 3rd District will be held in McHenry at their Moose Home on Sunday morning, Nov. 13, for an 8 a.m. serving of breakfast. All members are urged to attend.

On Thursday, Oct. 27 the Friendship committee of the W.O.T.M. is having a meeting at the Antioch Moose Home at 7:30 p.m. All Friendship members should be present at this meeting

Scotty Birdsell is scheduled to serve as chef for this Friday, Oct. 28 fish fry. The Halloween dance is set for Saturday evening, Oct. 29 and the children's Halloween party is set for Sunday afternoon, Oct. 30 at 2 p.m. The Gun Club is scheduled to meet also on Sunday, Oct. 30, and chairman Scotty Birdsell informs that the meeting will take place in the lodge basement at 2:30 p.m. so as not to interfere with the party scheduled for the children.

Evelyn Miller, Jr. graduate regent of the Antioch chapter will be traveling to Des Plaines Sunday, Oct. 30, to to be present at the Convocation scheduled there for the green capping ceremony. All members of the Chapter are invited to go along to help Evelyn celebrate. Collegians Gladys Schroeder and Alice Young will have a part in the floor work for this occasion, so this makes it an extra special day for the Antioch Chapter.

Special Speaker at Carmel High

Special interest in the Carmel High School Mothers' Club is being generated by the announcement that the guest speaker will be Mr. Robert Cromie, "Books Today" editor of the Chicago Sunday Tribune and host of Channel 11's TV discussion program "Book Beat." Guests of honor will be the pastors of the Carmel area parishes. The program will begin about 8:30 p.m.

Mr. Cromie, a versatile writer, reviewer, author and former war correspondent is a resident of rural Mundelein, and is well known among literary groups of the Chicago area. One of his many awards was an Emmy for his program on Channel II educational TV.

Both fathers and mothers of Carmel students will be served a potluck supper before the meeting at the high school cafeteria in Mundelein at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, October 25. Auxiliary members of the Mothers' Club are invited to attend the regular meetings and especially to bring their husbands and participate in this supper and program with all Carmel parents.

Chairman of the event is Mrs. Michael Miotti of Highwood, who will be happy to give menu information to anyone who contacts her. The Club is providing roast beef for the main course.

"Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving-kindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions."

This verse from the 51st Psalm is a part of the responsive reading in this week's Lesson-Sermon titled, "Everlasting Punishment," to be read at all Christian Science services this Sunday.

From the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, the following passage will be read: "Are we benefited by praying? Yes, the desire which goes forth hungering after righteousness is blessed of our Father, and it does not return unto us void."

The Scriptural readings also include the account of the healing by Jesus of the palsied man at the pool of Bethesda.

YOU CAN TRUST SCHADEBERG
TO FIGHT AGAINST RISING FOOD PRICES

A group of supermarket shoppers from Janesville asked Schadeberg about rising food costs. Here's his answer:

"I hope your husband doesn't blame you for those big grocery bills, because you aren't at fault — nor is the retailer or the farmer. The blame for high prices rests on the present administration and the "yes men" with their excessive spending policies. I'll fight for lower food prices."

YOU CAN TRUST SCHADEBERG
TO FIGHT FOR HIGHER FARM INCOME

Farmers from Janesville asked Schadeberg about the increasing cost of farming. His answer:

"Wisconsin farmers are told, you've never had it so good! But the real fact is — you've never had it so BAD! You got blamed for high food prices — when you receive less percentage of the national income than ever before in history! I will fight against wasteful government spending which creates this inflation!"

YOU CAN TRUST SCHADEBERG
TO FIGHT TO QUICKLY WIN THE WAR IN VIETNAM AND SECURE A JUST PEACE

A group of Delavan citizens are concerned about the duration of war in Vietnam. Here's what Schadeberg has to say:

"We must bring the war in Vietnam to a quick, but successful end. I propose that the United States and its Allies cut off aid to North Vietnam with an economic quarantine and a military blockade of the enemy. We must make better use of our air and sea power against strategic targets."

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald F. Klein

Miss Battista Weds Ronald F. Klein

Miss Rose Mary Battista became the bride of Ronald F. Klein at 2 p.m. Saturday, October 8, at the Millburn Congregational Church in Millburn.

The bride is the daugliter of Mrs. Scotty Birdsell of Lindenhurst and Mr. Michael Battista of Lake Geneva. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klein of Lake Villa. The Rev. L. H. Messersmith officiated in the double ring ceremony at which the bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride's gown, which was made and styled by her mother, was a floor length gown of Venice raised rose lace over white satin, with long sleeves accented at the wrists with ruffles. The modified empire waistline held the chapel train which was later converted into a bouffant train for the reception.

Her shoulder length illusion veil was held by a brilliant crystal and tear drop pearl bejeweled crown and she carried a bouquet of white roses and orchids.

Maid of honor was Darlene Teml of Antioch with Katherine Mary Ksiazyk, the bride's sister, of Pell Lake, and Linda Menning of Chicago as bridesmaids. They wore floor length empire gowns of mint green with tapestry brocaded bodice top and floating streamer trains, elbow length sleeves with sheath jersey skirts. The matching headpieces were held by a brocaded star point and they carried bouquets of carnations and variegated colored pompons.

James Ksiazyk of Pell Lake was the groom's best man and Noel Birr of Antioch and John Menning of Chicago served as ushers.

Over 200 persons attended the reception held at the Hartford Plaza in downtown Chicago following the wedding. The guests were served a dinner of prime rib with sparkling burgundy as a beverage and musicians from CBS-TV entertained them.

The couple have returned to Antioch to reside at the Tiffany Arms Apartments following a two-week honeymoon in Miami Beach, Fla.

The bride is a graduate of Antioch Community High School and is employed by Earl Stringer Dodge in Antioch as a bookkeeper.

The groom is a graduate of Niles Township High School and is a Vending Technician in Northlake.

Social Notes

By Del Jahneke

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jacobsen, Beach Grove, were recent hosts to two of Mr. Jacobsen's cousins—Mrs. Joseph Seskevich and Mrs. Evelyn Evans, both of Vandalia, Ohio. Mrs. Seskevich and Mrs. Evans were able to stay for several days, so there was plenty of time for reminiscing about old friends and relatives, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rathmann, Oakwood Knolls, along with approximately 85 other "Telephone Pioneers," took a chartered bus from Waukegan to Starved Rock State Park on Saturday, Oct. 22. "Telephone Pioneers" are the men and women who have worked for the Illinois Bell Telephone Company for 20 years or more.

There were three bus loads from Waukegan, Highland Park and Deerfield who attended this outing. A dinner was served at Starved Rock Lodge, with cards and movies for those who did not care to take any of the walking and climbing tours for others in the party. Mr. and Mrs. Rathmann took advantage of the lovely autumn weather, to do considerable hiking. Although they enjoyed the day, their sore muscles felt otherwise the following day!

The Bernard Stadick family of Antioch have just returned from a three day stay at beautiful Devil's Lake Park, located near Baraboo, Wis. They have spent many wonderful visits at various state and national parks, throughout the country, traveling and staying in their comfortable travel trailer.

See Astrodome On Texas Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Nelson, Lake Street, Antioch, returned Friday from a month's vacation in Texas. The Nelsons visited Major and Mrs. F. L. McKinney, (Mrs. McKinney is the former Charlotte Nelson.) Major McKinney is stationed at Dyess Air Force Base near Abilene.

The Nelsons took a side trip to Houston to see the Astrodome, which Mrs. Nelson described as "fantastic." No events were scheduled in the Astrodome at that time, but bullfights will soon be held there.

Liewehr-Selzer Wedding At Prince of Peace Church

By Mrs. Bernice Bernau

Miss Roselle T. Liewehr, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Liewehr of Chicago became the bride of John P. Selzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Selzer, 2306 East Valley Drive, Lindenhurst, in a 5 p.m. nuptial mass on October 8. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. David Lynch in Prince of Peace Catholic Church in Lake Villa. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Jack Liewehr. The couple also received the Papal Blessing.

The bride's gown was of nylon organza over bridal taffeta, with chantilly lace at the bottom of the full skirt coming up to form a heart and revealing an underskirt of chantilly lace. The fitted bodice was chantilly lace as were the long fitted sleeves. Her detachable chapel train was edged with the same lace and fell from her shoulders. Her elbow length veil was caught with a double open queen's crown of brilliants. Her colonial bouquet of white orchids was centered in white carnations.

Mrs. Joseph Panek, Jr., of Grandwood Park, was her sister's matron of honor, and Mr. Panek was Mr. Selzer's groomsman. Miss Theresa Jakubowicz of Chicago and Miss Maureen Miller of Lindenhurst, the groom's sister, were bridesmaids. David Hay of Lindenhurst and Paul Liewehr, the bride's brother, were ushers. John Miller of Lindenhurst served his brother's wedding mass.

The bride's attendants were attired in floor length gowns of two shades of pink. The fitted bodices were of rosy pink satin and the straight skirts were pale pink crepe. Their short pale pink veils were held with a bow of the darker pink satin. They carried colonial bouquets of pink rosebuds centered in pale pink carnations.

The couple was feted at a dinner and dance held immediately after the ceremony at the V.F.W. hall in Lake Villa. After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home at 270 N. Lake St., Mundelein, where Mr. Selzer is employed at the Piggly Wiggly food store.

Mr. Selzer is a graduate of Antioch High School.

Among the out of town guests were great-aunts and uncles of the bride from Racine, Wis., and Mr. and Mrs. John Molitor of Lake City, maternal grandparents of the groom. His paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Selzer of Spring Grove, who three days later observed their golden wedding anniversary, were unable to attend, due to the illness of his grandmother.

American Legion Auxiliary News

By Del Jahneke

Mrs. John Schultz, North Chicago, 10th District Rehabilitation Chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary, announces that there will be a special 2nd Division Rehabilitation Conference, to be held at the Belvidere Legion Home, Belvidere, Illinois, on Sunday, October 30, at 2 p.m. All Post Commanders, Unit Presidents, and their Rehabilitation chairmen are asked to attend this Conference.

Registration will be from 12 to 2 p.m. with the Conference starting promptly at 2 p.m. Those attending will receive their Rehabiliation packet and a personalized pen when they register. Department (state) Legion Commander Fred Merritt of Salem; Department Auxiliary President Mrs. Louis Unfer of Champaign; and Frank Bottigliere and Mrs. R. E. Hanneman, State Legion and Auxiliary Rehabilitation Chairmen, will conduct this meeting. Mrs. John W. Horan, Jr., is Antioch Unit's Rehabilitation Chairman.

On Monday, October 31, the 10th District American Legion Auxiliary Board meeting will be held at the Highwood Legion Home, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Ray Rathmann, Antioch Unit President and District Treasurer, and Mrs. Edward Jahneke, 10th District Pubicity-Radio-TV chairman, will be present at that session.

The Antioch Unit will be the "hostess unit" when the 10th District American Legion Auxiliary holds their first meeting of the year, under the leadership of Mrs. Herbert Gleason, Libertyville, 10th District Director, at the Antioch Legion Home, on Wednesday, November 9th, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Bernard Stadick, Antioch Unit 1st vice president, will be in charge of the arrangements for this large meeting.

November 11th, Veterans' Day, is also the Antioch Unit's meeting night. The Antioch American Legion and the Auxiliary will be having a dinner party then, with the Antioch Unit holding a very short business meeting.

Commander and Mrs. Bernard Stadick; Senior Vice Commander and Mrs. Ray Rathmann, and Past Commanders Ed. and Mrs. Jahneke, John W. Horan, Jr., and Mrs. Horan, and John L. and Mrs. Horan, all attended the Past Commanders' and Past Presidents' Dinner Party, held at the Holiday House, on Oct. 15. There were approximately 150 members and guests, who greatly enjoyed the dinner and the entertainment afterwards. Dancing for everyone concluded a pleasant evening. This year, Ed Jahneke has been president for the Past Commanders' Club of Lake County.

Manifesto To Be Read At St. Stephens

A 16-point "manifesto" to be read Sunday, October 30, in St. Stephen Lutheran Church, Antioch, will begin a period of self-examination and renewal at the church as well as in 6,217 other congregations of the Lutheran Church in America.

The Rev. Wilton Anderson, pastor of St. Stephen, said the manifesto consists of a "check list" of characteristics that a congregation alert to modern times must consider.

The document will be read from the pulpit on Reformation Sunday. The LCA approved the manifesto and accompanying two-year study at its church-wide convention last June. At the 1964 convention, the LCA became concerned that some of its congregations may have lost touch with modern changes in private and community life, and it ordered a study of the nature and mission of the congregation. The manifesto is the result.

Study materials are being prepared to help congregations strengthen themselves in terms of the mandate. The Rev. Dr. Franklin C. Fry, speaking of the manifesto, said: "I hail it with joy and gratitude. It has the potential for immeasurable good."

The Lutheran Church in America, with 3,265,000 members, is the largest Lutheran body in North America. St. Stephen congregation is a newly formed congregation in Antioch supported by the LCA. Presently meeting in the Antioch Community High School, the congregation plans to build a church soon.

A.F.S. Puts On Drive

The American Field Service is putting out a call to all Antioch High School area residents to get behind their students and save all R. C. Cola and Diet-Rite save-a-seal caps which are worth one cent to help the A.F.S. organization to raise the remainder of the money necessary to finance the foreign exchange student here at A. C.H.S.

Diana Stagg is enjoying her stay here in Antioch with the Walker Lyons family, and the students at A.C. H.S. are benefiting greatly from her presence. The last schoolday of each month has been declared "save-a-seal" day, and if every resident of the community who drinks the R.C. or Diet-Rite beverages would have the caps and give them to a student to bring to school, the organization would soon reach its financial goal.

George Hahn of the Hahn Jewelry Store has offered to donate a Speiel identification bracelet to the boy or girl who brings in the most caps on October 31, the kick-off day. So come on parents and friends—help your students save.

The adult group of A.F.S. will meet at the high school on November 3 at 8 p.m. in room 208. Anyone who is interested in attending and finding out more about A. F.S. is urged to come.

SPEND MONTH ON EUROPEAN TOUR

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oschmann of Lake Catherine near Antioch, returned last week from a month's tour of several European countries.

The Oschmanns visited Germany during the Oktoberfest, Austria, Jugoslavia, Bulgaria, Turkey, Greece, Italy and Switzerland. Istanbul is fabulous, reports Mrs. Oschmann, and they wished they could spend more time there. That city and Athens were the high spots of the trip to them.

The Oschmanns visited relatives of Mr. Oschmann in Switzerland.

HOME-MADE VANILLA ICE CREAM

(makes ½ gal.)

1 cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons flour
3 1/3 cups (2 large cans) undiluted evaporated milk
1 cup water
2 eggs
1 tablespoon vanilla

Combine sugar, salt and flour in top of double boiler. Add 1 cup evaporated milk and water. Cook over hot water until mixture is hot and very slightly thickened, stirring occasionally. Beat eggs. Stir a small portion of the sugar-milk mixture into the eggs. Return to rest of mixture in double boiler and cook for 2-3 minutes longer, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add vanilla and remaining 2 1/3 cups of evaporated milk. Chill thoroughly. Pour into freezer. Cover. Freeze using ice-salt mixture in proportion recommended for freezer. See directions with your freezer. When ice cream is frozen, pour off brine. Remove dasher and pack with ice and salt. Allow to stand 1½ to 2 hours to ripen.

Antioch To Lose An Old Landmark

A landmark in Antioch—the Mortensen Hotel on the corner of Main and Orchard Sts.—will disappear as soon as the new owners can find a firm to demolish it.

The Phillips Petroleum Co. will build a modern service station where the old hotel has stood since about 1890. The station will be one of the Phillips 66 top models, according to T. D. Sullivan, Phillips representative. When completed, it will represent an investment of about $100,000, according to Sullivan.

The new station will have two service bays, and will have a canopy covering the service area.

The sale of the property to Phillips brought the matter of re-zoning the land before the newly-formed Antioch Zoning Board last spring as the first re-zoning matter to be handled by the board. The property was purchased from Chris and Betty Mortensen, owners for about 25 years.

The hotel was built by Lyman B. Grice about 1890. His daughter, Marguerite Grice Nelson, still lives in Antioch. The hotel was sold to Charles Lux about 1902, before her birth, she says, but she remembers her parents telling about their days in the hotel business.

Summer visitors came to Antioch by train in those days, and Mrs. Nelson remembers her father telling about picking them up at the station, with a horse-drawn "bus." He also took summer visitors to the old Fenderson Hotel out at Channel Lake.

Mrs. Grice sometimes reminisced about the job of cooking for the hotel patrons. Those were the days of hearty eaters, when keepers of a hotel wouldn't have thought of serving individual slices of cake, or other portions, to guests. Chili sauce was cooked by the tub, meat picked up at the railroad station, and the food had to be good and plentiful.

The property later was owned by Barney Naber, then Arthur Edgar. Edgar sold it to the Mortensens, who maintained the hotel for about 25 years.

The Mortensens have moved to a home on Orchard St., and plan to do some traveling now that their days in the hotel business are past. After years of operating a hotel, they will now try being guests.

The Mortenson Hotel will soon be demolished to make room for a Phillips 66 Station. Here it is as it looked when first built when it was the Grice Hotel.

Recipe of Month Suits Season's Goblins

The season's ghosts and goblins won't be in any mood for tricks when they're treated with this pumpkin praline pie, richly topped with whipped cream and crunchy pecan pralines. The pecan pralines are also hidden in the golden pumpkin filling This recipe comes from the files of Karen Stedronsky, Northern Illinois Gas Company's home economist, who recommends making the praline crunch first and then the pie filling.

PRALINE CRUNCH

½ cup butter
1 cup sugar (white)
2 cups coarsely chopped pecan meats

Directions: Melt butter in skillet. Stir in sugar and pecan meats. Cook over moderate fire; stirring constantly until—sugar—mixture turns golden brown. Remove ingredients from heat and turn out on piece of aluminum foil to cool. Crumple pralines into small pieces.

PRALINE PUMKKIN PIE

1 envelope Knox gelatin
½ cup cold water
¾ cup light brown sugar
1 can pumpkin (1-lb. can)
½ cup milk
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
¾ teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup cream, whipped for filling
1 cup cream, whipped for garnish.
1 baked pie shell

Directions: Measrue water and pour into saucepan. Sprinkle gelatin over water and place pan on low heat to cook, stirring constantly until gelatin dissolves. Remove pan from heat, add brown sugar and stir until dissolved. In separate mixing bowl, combine pumpkin milk, salt, cinnamon and nutmeg. Gradually blend in gelatin mixture and stir ingredients until smooth. Fold in whipped cream.

Sprinkle half of Praline Crunch over bottom pastry shell. Pour pumpkin mixture into baked pie shell, chill until firm. At serving time garnish pie with additional—whipped cream and remaining Praline Crunch.

Set Date For Fall Camporee

The Northwest District of the North Shore Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America will hold their 1966 Fall Camporee on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, October 28, 29 and 30.

The location of the Camporee will be the Capt. Daniel Wright Woods at St. Mary's and Everett Roads on the Des Plaines River just south of Libertyville.

Committee Chairman Richard Sheldon said that he expects a record turn-out of Scouts for the event. Competitive activities are planned and will be conducted on Saturday afternoon.

All activities will be performed on the patrol system and first, second and third place ribbons will be awarded. The Top Notcher Award will be presented to the unit which is judged the highest in overall camping ability.

MOOSE TOPICS

By Lillian Birdsell

Over 150 persons were present at a wedding reception held at the Antioch Moose Home Saturday evening, Oct. 22, to help celebrate the marriage of Barbara Warner to Charles Seelhoff. The Rev. Harold Nelson officiated at the doubleing ceremony held at St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Lindenhurst at 7:30 p.m. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Mark of Lake Villa, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilke of Huntley, Ill.

The bride was radiant in her floor length sheath gown of baby blue bridal satin with matching colored long sleeved alencon lace jacket. Her shoulder length veil was held by a blue satin clustered rose and she carried a bouquet of Zimbidium orchids surrounded by a cascade of snow drifts.

Barbara J. Kotlarchik of Elmwood Park was the bride's attendant and she wore a green velvet dress with a brocaded bodice. The headpiece was of green veiling held by seed pearl sand crystals, and her bouquet was an orchid set in green net and ribbon.

The groom's attendant was Mr. Daniel Reiker of Round Lake the guests were well feted with an overabundance of food set buffet style and the Rhythm Kings supplied the music for dancing.

The bride and groom are both active members of the Antioch Moose, as are the bride's mother and father. Mr. Mark is the present Jr. Governor of the lodge and his wife, Gerry, is a Collegian of the Chapter.

Following a breakfast served to 18 menibers representing the differnet Moose lodges of the States Associtaion, Mr. Walter Malinoski, vice-president of the Third District conducted a very interesting and informal meeting at the Antioch Moose Homee eeEueneday au pgk Home Sunday morning, Oct. 23. The main topic of conversation was one to create a more interesting program for the 3rd District by standardizing the importance of the value of the District.

Mr. Malinoski expressed the necessity of each governor to explain thoroughly to the members the functions of the 3rd District, what it is and what it consists of.

There were four governors present at this meeting representing the following lodges: Zion, Woodstock, Wauconda and Antioch. Each one in turn stressed their views on the subject. Attending the meeting from the Antioch Moose with Governor Richard Jorgensen, were Scotty Birdsell and Senior Regent Lillian Birdsell. The next meeting for the 3rd District will be held in McHenry at their Moose Home on Sunday morning, Nov. 13, for an 8 a.m. serving of breakfast. All members are urged to attend.

On Thursday, Oct. 27 the Friendship committee of the W.O.T.M. is having a meeting at the Antioch Moose Home at 7:30 p.m. All Friendship members should be present at this meeting

Scotty Birdsell is scheduled to serve as chef for this Friday, Oct. 28 fish fry. The Halloween dance is set for Saturday evening, Oct. 29 and the children's Halloween party is set for Sunday afternoon, Oct. 30 at 2 p.m. The Gun Club is scheduled to meet also on Sunday, Oct. 30, and chairman Scotty Birdsell informs that the meeting will take place in the lodge basement at 2:30 p.m. so as not to interfere with the party scheduled for the children.

Evelyn Miller, Jr. graduate regent of the Antioch chapter will be traveling to Des Plaines Sunday, Oct. 30, to to be present at the Convocation scheduled there for the green capping ceremony. All members of the Chapter are invited to go along to help Evelyn celebrate. Collegians Gladys Schroeder and Alice Young will have a part in the floor work for this occasion, so this makes it an extra special day for the Antioch Chapter.

Special Speaker at Carmel High

Special interest in the Carmel High School Mothers' Club is being generated by the announcement that the guest speaker will be Mr. Robert Cromie, "Books Today" editor of the Chicago Sunday Tribune and host of Channel 11's TV discussion program "Book Beat." Guests of honor will be the pastors of the Carmel area parishes. The program will begin about 8:30 p.m.

Mr. Cromie, a versatile writer, reviewer, author and former war correspondent is a resident of rural Mundelein, and is well known among literary groups of the Chicago area. One of his many awards was an Emmy for his program on Channel II educational TV.

Both fathers and mothers of Carmel students will be served a potluck supper before the meeting at the high school cafeteria in Mundelein at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, October 25. Auxiliary members of the Mothers' Club are invited to attend the regular meetings and especially to bring their husbands and participate in this supper and program with all Carmel parents.

Chairman of the event is Mrs. Michael Miotti of Highwood, who will be happy to give menu information to anyone who contacts her. The Club is providing roast beef for the main course.

"Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving-kindness; according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions."

This verse from the 51st Psalm is a part of the responsive reading in this week's Lesson-Sermon titled, "Everlasting Punishment," to be read at all Christian Science services this Sunday.

From the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, the following passage will be read: "Are we benefited by praying? Yes, the desire which goes forth hungering after righteousness is blessed of our Father, and it does not return unto us void."

The Scriptural readings also include the account of the healing by Jesus of the palsied man at the pool of Bethesda.

YOU CAN TRUST SCHADEBERG
TO FIGHT AGAINST RISING FOOD PRICES

A group of supermarket shoppers from Janesville asked Schadeberg about rising food costs. Here's his answer:

"I hope your husband doesn't blame you for those big grocery bills, because you aren't at fault — nor is the retailer or the farmer. The blame for high prices rests on the present administration and the "yes men" with their excessive spending policies. I'll fight for lower food prices."

YOU CAN TRUST SCHADEBERG
TO FIGHT FOR HIGHER FARM INCOME

Farmers from Janesville asked Schadeberg about the increasing cost of farming. His answer:

"Wisconsin farmers are told, you've never had it so good! But the real fact is — you've never had it so BAD! You got blamed for high food prices — when you receive less percentage of the national income than ever before in history! I will fight against wasteful government spending which creates this inflation!"

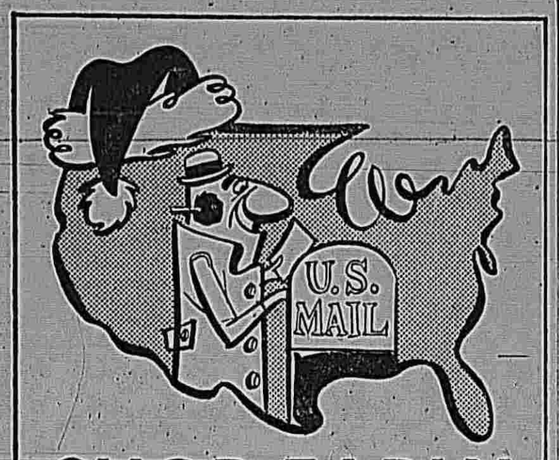

YOU CAN TRUST SCHADEBERG
TO FIGHT TO QUICKLY WIN THE WAR IN VIETNAM AND SECURE A JUST PEACE

A group of Delavan citizens are concerned about the duration of war in Vietnam. Here's what Schadeberg has to say:

"We must bring the war in Vietnam to a quick, but successful end. I propose that the United States and its Allies cut off aid to North Vietnam with an economic quarantine and a military blockade of the enemy. We must make better use of our air and sea power against strategic targets."

Silver Anniversary

Ed, Bernice and Bill Bernau and Anne Campbell attended the silver wedding anniversary party of Robert and Marie Bernau recently at St. Peter's School hall in Roselle and then at their home in Hoffman Highlands. Ed was usher at his brother's wedding 25 years ago. Also their brother Jim. Pastor Sternberg was guest speaker. Dance music was played by Warren and Jim Bernau, on their guitars.

Men's Club News

The forthcoming Halloween party for the children of Lake Villa Township was the main topic of business discussed at the Lindenhurst Men's Club meeting. The gala affair will be held at the Civic Center on October 31 at 7 p.m. sharp. Judging will be by Milton Lazansky, Jim Sweeney and Lyle Mercer. Prizes will be given to the best costumes in each age group. Refreshments will be served downstairs after costumes are judged.

The "Millionaires" have been hired to play for the annual New Year's Eve party.

The subject of the rental of the Civic Center was brought up. Anyone who has any questions to ask pertaining to the rental should call Ray Parpan.

Woman's Club Report

Mrs. Rae Gibbons and Mrs. Jenny Volpentesta were nominated for president of the Lindenhurst Women's Club at the last meeting. Other members nominated for office were Mrs. Patricia Mauck and Mrs. Barbara Hendricksen, for vice president; Mrs. Shirley Mertes, secretary; Mrs. Carol Sweeney, treasurer; Executive Board, two to be elected: Mrs. Patricia Rickey, Mrs. Sharon Bunkelman, Mrs. Lillian Peterson and Mrs. Jeanette Marigliano. Election will be at the November meeting.

Mrs. Rae Gibbons announced that reservations are coming in for the May 27 Dinner-Dance. A limited number will be sold.

Members voted to assist the Senior Citizens of the community as suggested by Ronnie Coles at a meeting recently.

A "thank you" letter was received from Red Cross thanking the members for visiting the wounded patients at Great Lakes Hospital in September. Members are going again on Nov. 18. Anyone who would like to donate fresh fruit, envelopes or stamps should contact Joy Manuel or Jenny Volpentesta. The boys really appreciate these items.

Carol White, Millie Caldwell and Pearl Kockler are moving out of the village this month.

Members voted to purchase canopies for over the front and back doors of the Civic Center, if there is money left in the treasury at the end of the year.

The December meeting will be a pot-luck supper for members and their husbands. On the committee are Joy Manuel, Jeanette Marigliano and Jenny Volpentesta.

Winners of the Halloween contest were Joy Manuel as an Indian princess and Carol Sweeney as a baby.

Diane Kocinski was a guest. Jeanette Baker and Dolores Martin became members after last month's meeting.

Shirley Mertes and Sharon Bunkelman were hostesses.

Robert Currie, a new resident of the village, will perform his magic tricks at the November 10 meeting. All ladies in the village are invited to attend.

Revenue Amendment Raises Debt Limit of Unit Schools

Bonding Power of Unit School Districts

Under the present Illinois Constitution the general obligation bonding (debt) limitation is 5% of the valuation of the property of the local government, and this has been a deterring factor to school district consolidation in some areas of our State. For example, if an elementary school district and a high school district have coterminous, or nearly coterminous boundaries, each school district has a bonding limitation of 5%, or a total of 10% for both. However, if the two districts would consolidate into a unit district (12 grades under one administration), the new unit district would have a bonding debt limit of 5% of the valuation of the property in the district.

To help encourage better educational opportunities through school consolidation, H.J.R. 71 allows unit school districts a bonding limitation of 10% of the valuation of the property of the district; all other local taxing bodies remain at the present 5% limitation. However, if the proposal passes and the General Assembly passes a State income tax in the future and the personal property tax is abolished, then unit school districts will have a bonding limitation of 12% of the valuation of the property of the district, and the debt limitation of all other local governmental units becomes 6%. There will be little opposition to the new bonding (debt) limitation if the General Assembly continues to subject general obligation bond issues to a vote of the people.

Distribution of State Taxes

H. J. R. 71 allows the General Assembly to distribute the proceeds of any State tax to local governmental units for such purposes as the Legislature may direct by general law. Under the present Revenue Article, the General Assembly may distribute the revenues from State taxes to local governments for general state purposes (such as, for educational purposes, roads, gen. assistance) but not for general or corporate purposes on a broad basis. Under the provisions of H.J.R. 71, the General Assembly has the authority to allocate State funds to local governmental bodies for whatever purposes it may deem necessaary.

Vote Required for Passage

H.J.R. 71 will become a part of the Illinois Constitution, replacing the present Revenue Article, if either:

(a) A majority of the electors voting at the November 8, 1966 election vote for the Revenue Article amendment proposal; or

(b) Two-thirds of the electors voting on the Revenue Article amendmenet proposal vote in favor of it.

To clarify, let us assume that 5,000,000 electors vote at the November 8, 1966 election: under (a) above the amendment passes if at least 2,500,001 electors vote for the amendment. However, if 3,000,000 electors vote on the proposed amendment, under (b) above the amendment will pass if at least 2,000,000 electors vote in favor of it.

APPLICATIONS FOR

You may now get your copy of the state nursery price list and application blank for reserving your forest planting stocks for spring 1967, according to Ray T. Nicholas, Lake County Farm Adviser.

Purposes for which state nursery stocks may be used include the growing of forest products, including Christmas trees, erosion control, game food and cover, and improvement of existing forest stands. State law forbids use for ornamental shade tree or landscape purposes.

The State Division of Forestry operates two tree nurseries, one in Mason County and another in Union County. Broad-leaved or hardwood species offered this year include ash, black alder, black locust, black walnut, cottonwood, gray and silky dogwoods, multiflora rose, pin oak, red gum, red oak, river birch, soft maple, sycamore, tulip poplar and, white oak. Needle leaved or softwood species include baldcypress, red cedar and jack, loblolly, red, Scotch, short-leaf and white pines. Two wildlife packets, one for northern Illinois and the other for the southern part of the state, include tree and shrub mixtures designed to stock wildlife food and cover areas.

Demand usually exhausts some times by the first of the year, Nicholas points out. So reserve your needs early. The state forester, Springfield, will accept applications, however, until April 17, 1967.

P M & L News

"Once Upon a Mattress" is a musical comedy with a bright and refreshingly original approach. Perhaps its most endearing feature is that, while being a sophisticated musical it has the charm that is essential to a fairy story. Its satire is never cruel and the humorous situations are unexpected and uproariously funny.

"Once Upon a Mattress" is based on the famed fairy tale of the Princess and the Pea. Most of us were told, when we were young, of the princess who, because of her noble birth, was so sensitive that she was unable to sleep on a bed of twenty downy mattresses when a single pea was placed beneath the bottom mattress. Jay Thompson Marshall Barer, and Dean Fuller (authors) have used the story as a springboard to dive into a rollicking story that crackles with excitement. Music is by Mary Rodgers and lyrics by Marshal Barer.

The Prologue, sung by the Minstrel (Mavaurneen Reardon) tells the story as most of us have heard it, explaining how it happened "Many Moons Ago." After warning the audience that this version does not cover all the facts, the story unfolds as it really happened.

The kingdom is in a sorry state. Placed under a witch's curse, King Sextimus (Don Beveroth) has been struck dumb and "will never talk until the Mouse devours the Hawk." Queen Agravain (Gloria Davis), a marathon talker, has assumed power. She has decreed that no one in the kingdom may wed until Prince Dauntless (Steve Krotz) is married to a true princess of royal blood. The prince is a likeable young man, but he is completely dominated by his mother, who is determined that he shall remain single. So far the Queen has given the Royalty Test to eleven contenders for Dauntless' hand and each has been dismissed on the grounds that she is not a true princess.

Members of the court who play a big part in the development of the tale are the lovely lady Larkin (Florence Babusek) and her handsome lover, Sir Harry (Kenneth Smouse), the Jester (Bob Thomley), the Wizard (Bob Lindblad). Other cast members are Sue Bushnell, Carol Brandy, Penny Kovalenko, Sue Stringer, Kathy Droogan, Lois Bushnell, Marty Lusiak, and Ken Nelson.

And then there is Princess Winnifred (Dee D'Isa) who makes an impressive entrance dripping wet, "Actually," she informs the astonished group, "I swam the moat." Winnifred comes from a part of the swampland known as the Wallow-on-the-Mire and possesses none of the courtly graces, although Sir Harry brings papers proving that she is a real princess. The Queen is intent upon discrediting Winnifred and tells the Wizard that the test she plans for the girl will be one of "Sensitivity".

The rest of the story is yours to find out. It will be presented at the PM&L Theatre on Main St. on Nov. 4, 5, 11 and 12. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. You'll laugh from beginning to end and leave without a care in the world.

Season tickets are now on sale for the PM&L season as well as single tickets for this play. Call Vivian Maplethorpe 395-3613 for reservations.

Motorists should be extra careful during the first few weeks of the new school year, cautions the Chicago Motor Club. Many youngsters will be making their first venture into school life and may let the excitement cause them to forget their safety habits. Drive slowly in school zones and give the youngsters a chance to grow up and learn.

Robert Jay Neuroth

Promoted To Vice President

The appointment of Robert Jay Neuroth to the position of vice president was recently announced by Continental Aluminum Products Company of McHenry.

In his new capacity, Neuroth will be in charge of production and engineering with the responsibility for a plant expansion program designed to double the present capacity of the firm, which manufactures aluminum windows.

An area resident for many years, Neuroth spent his youth in Fox Lake. He is a graduate of Lane Technical High School in Chicago.

With the exception of two brief periods—when he worked on the Manhattan Project in Los Alamos, N. Mex., and when he started his own tool and die business—Neuroth has been with Continental both in Detroit, and McHenry for about 15 years.

He began his career under a tool and die apprenticeship, working his way up to a supervisory capacity with Continental, which led to his new position.

Neuroth resides with his wife, June, at 101 Kerwin Drive, Ingleside. They have three children: Dianne, 22, a United Airlines stewardess; Kathleen, 17, a senior at Grant High School; and Robert Jay, Jr., 8, a fourth-grader at Gavin School.

A&P what is the definition of a private brand?

To some people, it is a retailer's own brand created with selling price first in importance and quality second.

To us at A&P, it's the opposite.
Quality comes first.
Value...the best for the least is the rule for our private brands.

If this wasn't true,
how foolish we'd be to invest, as we have,
literally millions of dollars in processing plants and testing laboratories.

If all we wanted were products we could sell cheaply without quality control, anybody could produce them for us.

The idea of quality private brands isn't new at A&P.
As a matter of fact, it's one of our oldest policies—and by golly, we're proud of it.

Are A&P Private Brands a good reason for shopping A&P?
They're one of many.

Sequoit Harriers Take Conference Trophy

Turkey Shoot At McHenry

The Crystal Lake Jaycees will hold their 4th annual Turkey Shoot at the McHenry Sportsmen's Club Trap Range, Sunday, October 30, starting at 11 a.m.

Heading the list of prizes to be won by dead-eye shooters are tender young turkeys and chickens. Loading components will be on the prize list too.

Frosting on the cake will be a special shoot for winners with a special prize of a brace of pheasants being awarded the victor.

The Crystal Lake Jaycees sonsor and support youth activities, such as the Boy Scouts; tennis and track teams; flag football, and others.

Funds to support these projects are raised by staging a Fourth of July Fireworks display at Veterans Acres; a carnival, and a bowling tournament, plus a Turkey Shoot.

In charge of the shoot is chairman Richard Ragni, Crystal Lake, a Systems Analyst employed by Signode Corporation. John Heisler, Crystal Lake, will handle the awards at the shoot. Mr. Heisler is an auditor.

McHenry Sportsmen's Club is on the west side of Pistakee Bay and can be reached from McHenry via Chapel Hill Road to Adams Service Station with a right turn to the grounds. From the east use Route 134 Big Hollow Road to its western terminus, then a right turn for ½-mile.

First Trophy Win For Antioch Varsity

Antioch's Cross Country team scored a first for Antioch in last Saturday's Northwest Conference meet at Libertyville — they brought home the first-place trophy.

In fact, Antioch's win marked the first year since Cross Country competition started in the conference that Grant has not emerged the winner.

Antioch's five leading runners finished in fourth place, sixth, eighth, ninth and eleventh to add up to their winning score of 38. Closest competitor was Lake Forest with 55. Grant, four years winner of first place, finished in fifth.

Blaine Backman was again Antioch's leading runner, as he has been throughout the season. He took fourth place, followed by Tom Doolittle in 6th; Bob Biaggi in 8th, Chuck Denman in 9th and Bill Effinger in 11th.

"We set our goal at the start of the season," Coach Adrian Mueller said. "We wanted first place in the conference, and the boys have worked hard all season to win it."

The first and second place teams will go to the District meet at 10:30 a.m. Saturday. The five individual runners who win Saturday will go to the State meet.

With the conference trophy won this year, Coach Mueller can look forward to what should probably be as good a season next year. He is losing only two seniors, Backman and Doolittle. Four sophomores and two juniors have made up the balance of the varsity team.

These runners will be returning, plus Dave White, who was doing well in his sophomore year and broke his leg during the summer, keeping him out of competition this year. He will return next year as a senior.

Mueller also expects a better season next year from John Miklosh, who was sick early in the year and was unable to reach the peak of his performance in the short time he was active.

"The best thing about having so many good runners on tap," said Mueller, "is that the boys are always pushing each other for a place on the team. The kids have to keep working to keep their places."

Antioch's varsity harriers finished the season with a 15-0 record. Latest meet before the conference meet was with Mundelein and Lake Forest at Mundelein. Antioch won, scoring 27 to Lake Forest's 47 and Mundelein's 61. Leading runner was Blaine Backman, followed by Tom Doolittle, Bob Biaggi, Chuck Denman, Jim Maier, Mike Polley and Bill Effinger.

SOPHS TAKE SECOND

Antioch's sophomore cross country squad finished second behind Lake Forest at Saturday's conference meet. Lynn Barthel took first place in the meet, Gary Doolittle fifth, Bob Engelhardt 8th, Clarence Archer 14th and Don Jackson 16th. Lake Forest scored 40 points, Antioch 44. Warren was next with 96.

The sophomore harriers finished the season with a 12-2 record. In the three way meet at Mundelein last Thursday, the sophs won, with Lynn Barthel, Gary Doolittle, Clarence Archer, Bob Englehardt and Don Jackson turning in good performances.

Strong Wins Main Slot Car Event

Four heat races and a main event were run by model car racers at Stowe's Hobby Barn last Friday night.

Brian Moran won the first heat, followed by Eddie Litchfield. Don Dee took first in the second heat, with Jerry Anderson placing second. (Jerry didn't let 2 broken fingers keep him from racing.)

Third heat winner was Gary Strong; with George Lynch second. The fourth heat was won by Dane Lulling with Chuck Niesel second.

Gary Strong won the main event. Andy Dailey took over the car run by Chuck Niesel when Chuck took sick and had to go home. Andy brought Chuck's car in second.

First place winners in the heat races received trophies. Winner of the main event gets a prize.

Sequoits Break 2nd-Place Tie With Win

Antioch's varsity gridders moved into undisputed possession of second place in the Northwest Conference Saturday, with their 18-7 victory over Grayslake.

Lake Forest stayed in first place by defeating Grant 37-27. The Sequoits will face Warren at Antioch Saturday, with Lake Forest playing Round Lake.

Lake Forest, thanks to a tie with Warren, leads the league with a 4-0-1 record. Antioch's earlier loss to Lake Forest gives the Sequoits a 4-1 record.

Ty Walls plowed 238 yards on 42 plays Saturday to lead the Sequoits to victory and earned another Honorable Mention as Prep Back of the Week in the Waukegan News-Sun. Walls scored the first two TD's of the game, one in the second quarter and one in the third. Bill Sheldon scored Antioch's third TD in the fourth quarter on a 23-yard pass from Quarterback Jerry Whitson.

The first quarter of the game was scoreless. The first TD was set up by Fred Gras' recovery of a Grayslake fumble in the middle of the second quarter. Eight plays later, Walls carried the ball across the toal line on a 10-yard run.

Glen Oftedahl, back in play after being sidelined with injuries most of the season, squelched a Grayslake bid for a TD on the next kickoff, with a shirt-tail tackle of Grayslake's Warren Schulz after a 47-yard run by Schulz to Antioch's 25-yard line.

The Sequoits kept the ball for ten plays after receiving the second half kickoff. Walls carried the ball 78 yards and scored tthe second TD on a five-yard run.

Grayslake moved the ball to Antioch's one-yard line after the next kickoff, but Antioch's line held and Grayslake entered the fourth quarter scoreless.

Larry Davis intercepted a Grayslake pass to give the Sequoits possession on their own 20-yard line. Walls carried the ball seven times to Antioch's 42, where a long run by Sheldon moved the ball to the 20-yard line. Whitson threw a 23-yard pass to Sheldon and he was over for Antioch's final TD of the game.

Grayslake scored their lone TD on an 84-yard run by Schultz and Hampton kicked the PAT.

"It was a team effort all the way," Coach Roy Nelson said. "Ty Walls—well, the statistics show you what he did—23 yards in 42 carries. Fine defensive work by Steve Lobrillo, Hansen, Oftedahl; Osmond, coming out of the secondary four times; Mazer, substituting for Osterlund, played a fine game offensively and defensively. And Jerry Whitson is an outstanding leader."

Saturday, Oct. 29, Antioch will face Warren. The sophomore game will start at noon at the Antioch High athletic field, with the varsity game starting at 2 p.m. Saturday will also be Parents' Day at the game.

Soph Gridders Blank Grayslake

Scoring was evenly divided between four ball-carriers in Saturday's windblown sophomore football game, with Antioch scoring a 24-0 victory over Grayslake.

Jerry Martin, Steve Owens, Fred Koch and Terry Triplett each scored a touchdown, and the Antioch Sophs scored a touchdown in each quarter of the game.

Because of Antioch's ability to move the ball almost at will, Coach Hauptmann had an opportunity to watch a complete reserve squad in action. The reserves kept the momentum going by scoring on a short pass from reserve quarterback John Meyer to Terry Triplett.

The longest run of the day was by reserve end Don Koenig, who carried the ball 38 yards.

Coach Hauptmann said, "It's difficult to single out any defensive player. Both defensive units turned in a creditable job by holding Grayslake scoreless."

Three touchdowns were made rushing, and one by passing. The Antioch team failed on points after touchdown. Wind was a factor in this, and Antioch elected to kick the point.

The next game for the Sophs will be noon Saturday, on the Antioch High School football field, when they face Warren.

Inspector Hubbard makes a point regarding the murder he's investigating. It's all in "Dial M for Murder", showing again this weekend at the Antioch High School. Left, John Westoff (Max Halliday) and Marty McConahay as Inspector Hubbard in a scene from the play.

Speedway Drivers Star At Distant Tracks

Two Waukegan Speedway stars did very well in three afternoons of post-season auto racing they teamed up to enter on the past three Sunday afternoons. Bill Shoulders, of Libertyville, recently came out of retirement to run several events at the local Waukegan Speedway. Teaming witth Odell Jones, of Waukegan and fourth ranking late model driver of the 1966 season, this duo started traveling across the country.

First stop was Wentsville, Missouri, where Shoulders competed in the USAG 200 mile road race October 9. Piloting Jones' recently purchased 427 Ford, Shoulders finished a respectable sixth in the event and brought a king's ransom of cash and prizes back to Lake County.

On the 16th, the team journeyed to Schererville, Indiana, to race the half mile asphalt track at the Illiana Speedway. Once again Shoulders wheeled the red and white Ford, this time being the big winner by grabbing his heat race and later easily winning the 30 lap feature event.

Once again at Illiana for the finals of the late model season on Oct. 23, their fortunes weren't so good. Mechanical troubles forced them back in the trophy dash while leading stars from three states and later they had to withdraw from the feature while among the leaders.

This may well serve as a preview to the 1967 racing season at the local speedway as Jones intends to campaign both his new 427 Ford and another Ford Fairlane at Waukegan next season. At the present time it is not definite as to which driver, Shoulders or Jones, will drive which car, the Ford or the Fairlane.

J. Edgar Hoover Warns Of Communist Activity In U. S.

A clarion call for resurgent, revolutionary action has been sounded by officials of the Communist Party, U.S.A. This policy switch was highlighted at the Party's 18th National Convention in June in New York City. Clearly a move for mass agitation, the new strategy comes at a time when hard-core communist leaders sense a growing mood of radicalism in America, a time when they feel a bold offensive will meet little resistance.

Gus Hall, general secretary of the Party, speaking with exuberance and confidence to the convention delegates, stated, "The Party has started to grow in membership and influence. We are a factor in the left stream of each of the mass currents in the country." Emphasizing this point, Hall said the Party must be the catalyst, the teacher and the guider of the "new left." He called on the membership for a "move up to a revolutionary level . . . where you have a longer range goal, where you will now use the objective developments to bring an end to capitalism and its replacement by socialism."

The Party's aims are broad and sweeping. Accelerated communist influence can be expected in racial matters, civil rights issues, brutality charges against police, peace activities, and numerous other areas. Also, the youth of our Nation are being singled out for special attention. The Party's chief hope for rapid growth and approval rests on its efforts to entice restless young men and women into its ranks, and the communists already have good cause to be optimistic. The campaign to blanket colleges and university campuses with communist speakers—a program which has been accepted with palliative indifference by many persons—is a resounding success in the eyes of the Party.

Hall gave special praise to those who worked to get Marxism and the viewpoint of the communists onto the campuses, and he was quick to label the response to these appearances as a protest against legal restrictions which have plagued the Party. "Our concept of speaking to the millions," Hall concluded, "became a reality." A bouquet was also tossed to the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America, the communist - spawned Marxist youth organization, for successfully drawing increasing numbers of college youth into the Party. Working hand in hand with the DuBois Clubs on the campuses are organizations—such as the Students for a Democratic Society, a militant youth group which receives support from the Communist Party and which in turn supports communist objectives and tactics. Hall has characterized it along with the DuBois Clubs, as a group which the Communist Party has "going for us."

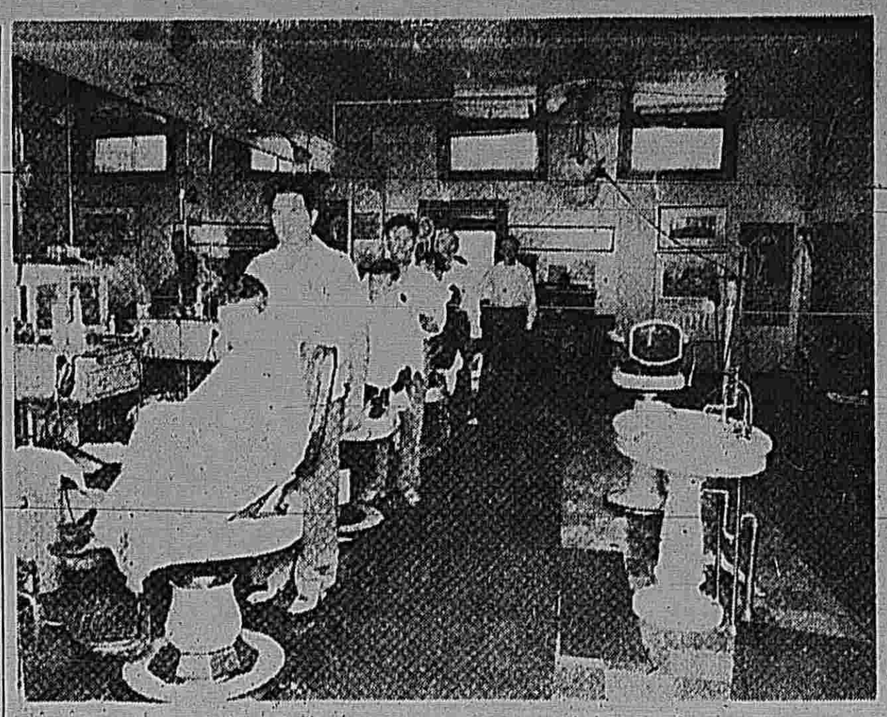

What does this open, all-out thrust for power and approval mean to patriotic Americans? It means that the revolutionary forces of atheistic communism, which in recent years have been on the defensive, are now working openly and defiantly to destroy our system of free enterprise and democracy. It means that those who choose to downgrade the internal threat of communism are sadly underestimating the zeal and dedication of hard-core Party leaders. And it means that Americans, and all free people, must never relax their vigil against the foes of liberty.

Basically, the Party's immediate objective is to gain acceptance and recognition as a legitimate political party. In reality, of course, the ultimate goals of the new communist offensive is still the same — the enslavement of the American people.

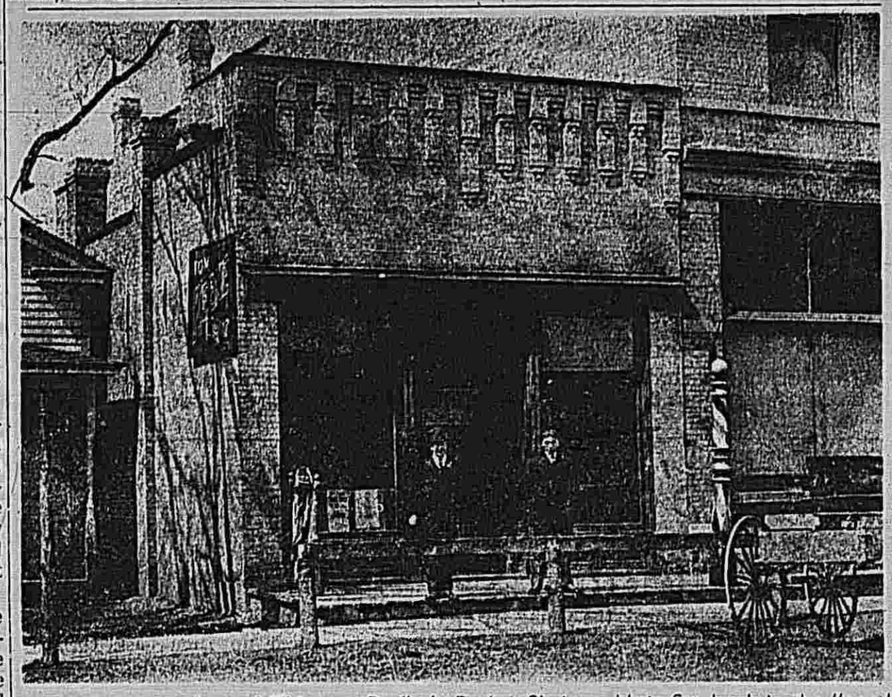

To my mind, citizens whose forefathers established a government of laws to preserve their freedoms should not be faced with dwindling legal means to protect that government from an announced attack by those dedicated to its violent overthrow.

GOOD CURE, WRONG PATIENT

A young man rushed into a bar and asked the bartender: "How do you stop hiccups?"

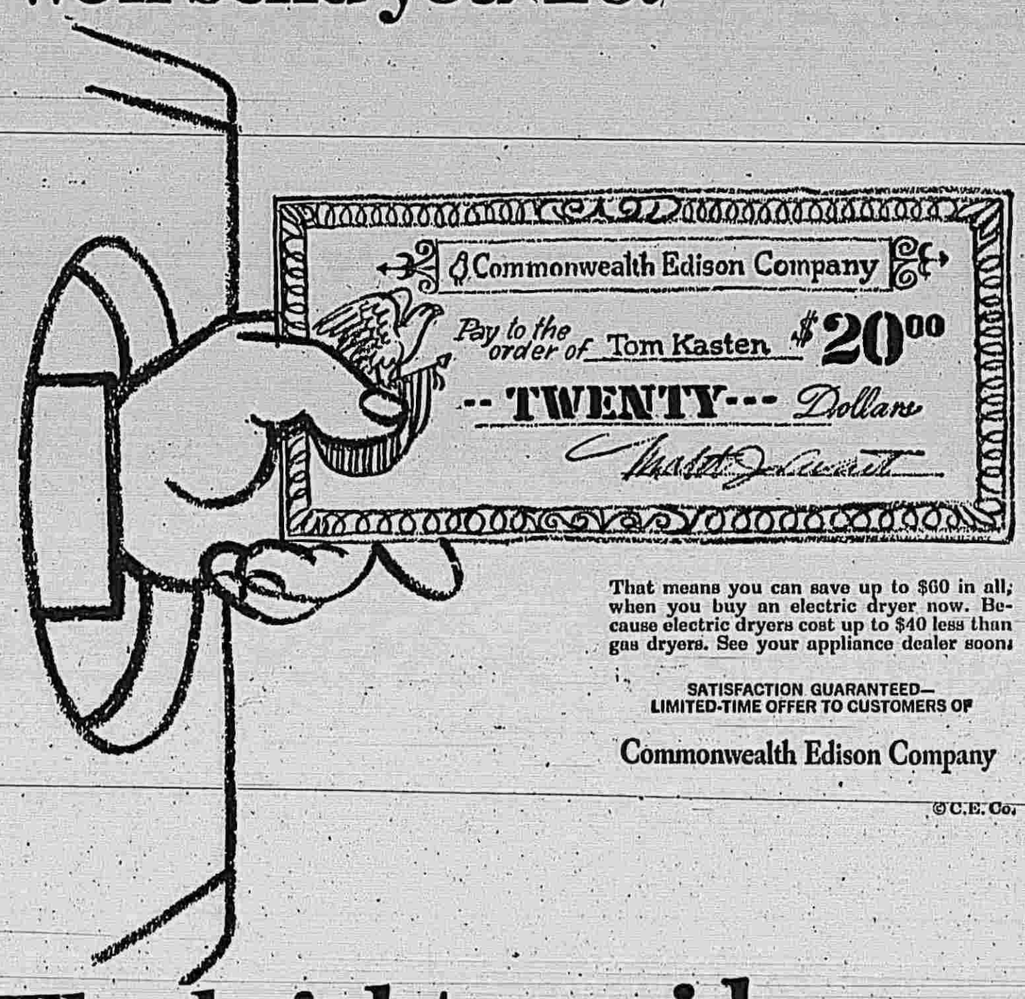

The bartender reached down quickly, slapped him across the face with a wet rag. The guy was furious. "But you don't have the hiccups any more do you?" asked the bartender.

"I never did. My girl out in the car's got 'em!"

Housewives Committee Pin Blame For High Prices On Democrats

Housewives and grocery shoppers in Denver and Chicago are picketing the wrong source of high prices, says Mrs. Jean Danford, 4020 Kinzie Avenue, Racine, chairman of the newly formed Home makers and Grocery Shoppers for Schadeberg Committee.

Schadeberg is Henry C. Schadeberg, the Republican candidate for Congress in Wisconsin's First District.

Mrs. Danford and her friends are circulating a printed flyer at shopping centers and grocery stores in Wisconsin's First District that puts the blame for high prices and inflation on the Johnson Administration and the current First District Congressman.

"The flyer reads, "Food prices soaring! Don't blame your grocer . . . blame your big spending Democrat Congressman." On the flyer is a cartoon depicting incumbent Congressman Stalbaum outside a market carrying a sign that says, "Lynn Stalbaum voted 92% for higher prices."

Mrs. Danforth points out that the 92% figure was Stalbaum's support of Johnson administration programs. She maintains that Johnson supported legislation is the most inflationary in history.

A mother of five children, three of whom are at home, Mrs. Danford says that she has had no trouble finding volunteers for her committee. "Women-in-the-Racine area are as disturbed about high prices as women in Denver and Chicago," she said.

"Henry Schadeberg, the Republican candidate for Congress in the First District has told me personally that he will fight to lower prices," she said.

Mrs. Danford's action comes in the wake of stories from cities across the country about housewives picketing and boycotting food stores.

"High prices are caused by excessive, wasteful and bungled spending in Washington," Mrs. Dunford said. "I'm sick of hearing the Administration blame high prices on the housewife, the farmer and the retailer. The blame for this problem lies in Washington, not at the corner grocery store."

Mrs. Danford added, "I know my grocer didn't get us into big government spending programs. His prices have to go up when his costs goes up . . . and his costs are the highest in history. Congress hasn't done a thing to control that."

Her committee plans to circulate the flyer at as many grocery and food stores in the First District as possible between now and election day, November 8. A group of housewives in Janesville has already offered to circulate the flyers in the Janesville area, she said, adding that she expected that groups in Beloit, Kenosha, Elkhorn, Whitewater and other communities would become active very quickly. "Everything is happening so fast," she said.

Whatever you transform the children into, one good way to entertain them on Halloween is with a traditional party. After the Trick or Treating is over, lure the witches and wizards home with activities of apple bobbing and pumpkin carving contests. And even ghosts and such-like creatures need to nourish their spirits—especially with deviled eggs, devil's food cake and sandwitches.

The safest place for pedestrians to cross the street is at the corner . But even corners are safe only if pedestrians take the necessary precautions. Before stepping from the Curb, always look in all directions. If there is a traffic signal at the intersection, do not walk until the proper sign is flashed. A safe pedestrian is an alert and cautious one.

The best time for a man to assert his authority, and show his wife who is boss, is when he gets up enough courage.

Hallowe'en Customs May Be Romantic Or Eerie

Irish rustics who roamed from house to house seeking butter, eggs, and corn on All Hallow's Eve would hardly believe the loot that today's young Trick or Treaters pursue. Ever since the holiday was started by the Celts in 834, each country has had its own Hallowe'en customs —some romantic, some eerie.

In Scotland, young lassies blindfold themselves and pick cabbages from the garden to find out if their future spouses will be young or old, poor or wealthy, and of sweet or sour disposition. A special Halloween dish, Caulcannon, is used in Ireland to foretell the future. In a mixture of mashed potatoes, parsnips, and chopped onions, a ring is placed to indicate marriage, a doll for children to come, a thimble for an old maid, and a coin for wealth. When the symbol pops up in his serving, the person learns of his future.

Apple-bobbing contests originally had romantic superstitions connected with them. It was believed that if the lucky young maiden who won the apple slept with it under her pillow that night, she would dream of her future husband. Or, if she stood in front of a mirror, combing her hair and eating the apple, he would appear in the mirror over her shoulder.

Villagers in Great Britain toss nuts into a fire, and by the way they burn, foretell who will have good luck and who will be married. Welshmen also have a Halloween fire custom. They gather about hilltop bonfires, wait until they burn down, then race down the hill—believing that the devil will catch the last one down. And Scottish and Irish peasants wave pitchforks of flaming straw to burn the brooms of any witches flying nearby.

Superstitious folk also guard themselves against wizards and their traditional associates — toads, cats and owls. In England, these animals were called familiars and were thought to be the servants of the wizard. If he wished to cast a spell on a person, he sent his familiars out to do the job. The wizard always kept a cauldron or two on hand to work up a magic potion and occasionally he would transform himself into a familiar and work his own black magic.

Today's witches, goblins, wizards and other spooky kinfolk are more likely to be the neighbor's little girl or boy. In America, Halloween has been taken over by the young fry and special excitement revolves around the tradition of dressing in costume. Newest easy-to-make costume is a wizard's garb—colored to look magical. All you need is an old twin bed sheet, crayons, and a piece of paper. Here's how:

Take the sheet and fold it in half, so the hems touch—to form the hem of the costume. The selvage on either side of the sheet will finish the sleeves so they need no hemming.

Slit the sheet along the center of the fold for about 8 inches to make a hole for the head. From the center of this slit, cut out a straight line down the front of the costume for about 6 inches. Divide the fold into three parts and from these points slant a seam toward the side selvage edges. Run another seam up from each corner of the hem to the armhole and then back down the side.

Add a wizard's hat made out of the piece of paper by rolling it into a cone shape and stapling it. Attach a ribbon to either side of the hat so it can be tied under the chin.

When you've finished making the costume, your child can add his own ideas by coloring the costume and hat with crayons. Designs such as moons, suns, and stars can be crayoned on. And the costume can be adaptable to whatever the wearer fancies himself. Color it violet and add a gold crown and presto! chango! it's a royal robe. Switch to red plus a mandarin hat and the whole costume goes oriental.

YOU CAN TRUST SCHADEBERG to fight the rising cost of living.

"The blame for high food prices rests on the inflationary and wasteful spending policies of the Johnson Administration and his 'yes men'. I will fight for lower food prices and lower interest rates." Schadeberg knows what it means to provide food, shelter, clothing and education for his family.
